MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2004 Buffalo Bills media guide has been prepared to assist all members of the media in their coverage of the team. Should you need further assistance, please contact a member of the team's media relations staff either in the office or at home.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests should be made in writing on letterhead no later than Wednesday at noon preceding any home game.

MEDIA REQUESTS: Requests for photos, interviews and other general information about the Buffalo Bills should be directed to the Bills' Media Relations Department.

DAY OF THE GAME: The Press Will Call window is located on the west side of the stadium near Gate 3. To access the press box, enter through Gate 3 and walk towards the blue double doors directly in front of the gate. The press box attendant will check your credential for admittance to the box. Media parking is limited and must be arranged no later than Wednesday prior to each home game.

MEDIA TELEPHONES: Pool phones are provided for media use in the press box. Those who need to make arrangements for individual telephone lines in the press box need to contact Verizon at 518-890-6464.

Ralph WILSON, JR.

Chairman
45th Year with Bills

/// Ralph Wilson, Jr. is respected League-wide as an owner who is equally passionate about his beloved Bills and the National Football League and speaks his mind with the best interests of both at heart. Having started his Buffalo franchise in 1960, Mr. Wilson is the only original American Football League owner who has kept his team in its originating city. He played a significant role in the AFL-NFL merger and has since served on nearly every League committee. He has been honored with numerous awards, such as the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C., but none were more appropriate than The Buffalo News naming him the "Top Sports Figure" in Western New York in the past millennium.

Beyond the football field, Mr. Wilson's philanthropic arm reaches various parts of the country with emphasis on the Western New York region. Mr. Wilson has long been recognized for his diverse charitable endeavors that include such benefactors as the food banks of Buffalo and Rochester, the Ronald McDonald House, the United Way, S.P.C.A., the Buffalo Philharmonic, Shea's Performing Arts Center and the Hospice Foundation of WNY, which recently named a new building wing the Mary and Ralph Wilson, Jr. Hospice Inpatient Unit. For his tremendous charitable efforts in the Buffalo area over the years, Mr. Wilson was named the Seymour Knox III Humanitarian Award winner in the spring of 2003. In recent years, he established the Ralph Wilson Medical Research Foundation and has contributed over $5,000,000 to the effort since 1999. Two of the Foundations main benefactors are Buffalo's Roswell Park Cancer Institute and the Cleveland Clinic.

Mr. Wilson is also a strong supporter of education and has established scholarship programs at various colleges. As an alumnus of the University of Virginia, he recently endowed the University's Jefferson Scholars Foundation with an ongoing fund that will annually provide candidates from the Buffalo area with the ability to apply for the Foundation's four-year, full-ride scholarship program. At St. John Fisher College in Rochester, the Bills Chairman is responsible for a new building on campus that houses the College of Education.

Mike MULARKEY

Head Coach
1st Year with Bills

/// Mike Mularkey enters his first year as head coach of the Bills after being named the 13th head coach in team history on January 14, 2004.

A former NFL tight end, Mularkey will look to combine the toughness he exhibited as a player with the intelligent efficiency he displayed as an assistant coach to revamp the Bills team outlook and bring consistent success to Buffalo.

Upon Mularkey's hiring, Bills President and General Manager, Tom Donahoe, commented that Mularkey's leadership and capacity to relate to players is what made him the definitive choice for the Bills.

"There were many qualities that stood out in Mike, but the most important were leadership and the ability to understand players and understand players' abilities, which is so essential to the game today," Donahoe said. "Mike will bring toughness to the team, particularly mental toughness, which we feel this team needs. I think Mike Mularkey is a very special person and I think he is going to be a very special coach in this league and for the Buffalo Bills."

Mularkey's relationships with his players started to flourish the moment he was hired and continued throughout the offseason. Despite the fact that many offseason workout sessions were voluntary, Mularkey's presence prompted nearly every player to participate consistently in the offseason.

Bills receiver Bobby Shaw played in Mularkey's system at Pittsburgh and thinks that the coach will be a great fit for the team.

"Mike Mularkey puts football in the context where players can understand it and where players want to go out and perform," Shaw said. "He does things in such a way where guys want to respond and want to play for him."

Mularkey comes to the Bills from the Pittsburgh Steelers where he held the offensive coordinator position for the last three seasons (2001-03) and helped guide the Steelers to top offensive rankings in 2002 and 2001. His innovation helped the Steelers develop an efficient and physical offensive style, which contributed to the team's success. Entering his first campaign as head coach of the Bills, Mularkey hopes to bring a similar style to his new team.

Under Mularkey's tutelage, the Pittsburgh offense ranked in the top five in the League in 2001 and 2002. In 2002, Mularkey guided the Steelers offense to a 5th place ranking in the NFL. He helped rejuvenate the career of quarterback Tommy Maddux who, after a ten-year span between appearances in the NFL, started 11 of 15 games and set a Steelers franchise mark for pass completion percentage (62.1) and compiled a passer rating of 85.2, good for third in the Steelers all-time record books. Also in 2002, saw both Plaxico Burress and Hines Ward register 1000-yard receiving seasons for the second straight year, marking the first time in Steelers history that two receivers recorded 1000-yard seasons in consecutive years.

In 2001, Mularkey's first as a coordinator, Pittsburgh posted the League's number one rushing attack and the third-ranked overall offense. That year the Steelers registered a 13-3 regular season record and won the AFC Central Crown. As with Tommy Maddux in '02, Mularkey was a vital part of Kordell Stewart's success in 2001. After posting career highs with 266 completions for 3,109 yards while starting all 16 games, Stewart was named Pittsburgh's team MVP and was the first Steelers quarterback selected to the Pro Bowl since Neil O'Donnell in 1993.

Prior to his stint as offensive coordinator, Mularkey coached the Steelers tight ends from 1996-2000. He broke into the League as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' quality control coach under Sam Wyche in 1994 and was elevated to the Buccaneers' tight ends coach in 1995. He started his coaching career at the collegiate level as an offensive line coach for Concordia College (MN).

Originally a 1983 ninth-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers, Mularkey was waived prior to the season and was picked up by the Minnesota Vikings where he played tight end from 1983-88. He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers as a Plan B free agent and played with Pittsburgh from 1989-91. Over the course of his career, Mularkey tallied 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns.

Born 11/19/61 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, Mike and his wife Betsy live in Orchard Park with their sons Patrick and Shane.

The 2004 season will mark the 40th anniversary of the Buffalo Bills first AFL Championship. Led by six future Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame inductees, including one Pro Football Hall of Fame honoree – Billy Shaw – the Bills started the 1964 season 9-0, which is the longest winning streak to start a season in Bills history, and closed the season with a 20-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers to capture the AFL Championship.

Lou Saban's squad, led by the arm of Jack Kemp, the hands of Elbert Dubenion and the legs of Cookie Gilchrist, posted 20 unanswered points in the Championship game. The scoring began late in the first quarter on a 12-yard field goal by Pete Gogolak and the Bills never looked back, pulling away from San Diego at Buffalo's War Memorial Stadium on the day after Christmas. While Kemp, Dubenion, and Gilchrist, accounted for nearly 400 yards of total offense, it was Bills linebacker Mike Stratton's rib breaking hit on Chargers running back Keith Lincoln in the first quarter that is most remembered for shifting the game's momentum.

The Bills 1964 championship season helped build the foundation for the team's rich history on and off of the field.

PRO III Came to the Bills in a trade with New England on the second day of the 2002 NFL Draft (4/21/02); the Patriots received Buffalo's first-round selection in the 2003 NFL Draft...Bledsoe had spent his entire nine-year NFL career with the Patriots, who selected him with the first overall pick in the 1993 Draft.

2003 SEASON III In his second season with the Bills, Bledsoe again started all 16 games and completed 274 of 471 passes (58.2%) for 2,860 yards with 11 TDs and 12 INTs...after just 32 games with the Bills he climbed to fourth on the franchise's all-time lists in attempts (1,081), completions (649) and is fifth in passing yardage (7,219) and passing touchdowns (35, tied with Dennis Shaw)...opened the season vs. NE (9/7) and was 17-28 passing for 230 yards with a TD and an INT en route to his first win against his former team...the next week at Jax (9/14) he was again very impressive with 314 yards on 19-25 passing with 2 TDs and no INTs for a near-perfect QB rating of 144.2...endured a difficult outing in week 3 at Mia. (9/21); for just the fourth time in 19 career games with the Bills he failed to throw a TD pass and he finished the game 10-25 passing for 98 yards with two INTs...came back the next week vs. Phi. (9/28) to complete 27 of 43 passes for 296 yards with both a TD pass and run and no INTs; the scoring run was the fifth of his career and third as a Bill...in week 5 vs. Cin. (10/5), he led his 22nd career 4th quarter comeback and finished with 211 yards on 19-35 passing with a TD and no INTs...his third quarter INT at NYJ (10/12) snapped a stretch of 130 attempts without one and was the 12th 100+ streak of his career...in week 7 vs. Wash. (10/19), he completed 19 of 26 passes for 244 yards with a TD and an INT; he enjoyed a 73.1% completion rate marking his 15th career game above 70% and his second of 2003 (5 of the 15 have been with Buffalo)...at NYG (11/30), he completed 19 of 29 passes for 252 yards and a pair of TDs in less than three quarters of action; on Buffalo's three straight scoring drives in the second and third quarters, he was 13-17 for 179 yards with 2 TD throws; six of his 19 completions covered 20+ yards and he finished with a passer rating of 115.9 for his 30th career game with a 100+ rating...his two TD passes at Ten. (12/14) gave him 201 in his career and 35 as a Bill...2002 III Enjoyed a phenomenal first season with the Bills...started all 16 games at QB and set 10 franchise records including single-season marks for yards (4,359), attempts (610) and completions (375) as well as 300-yard games (7)...earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection and his first since 1997; also went to the Pro Bowl following the 1994, '96 and '97 seasons with New England and became the third quarterback in Bills history to earn a Pro Bowl selection, joining Jim Kelly (5) and Doug Flutie (1)...ranked second in the NFL in passing yards (4,359) and attempts (610) behind only Rich Gannon (4,689 & 618) and his 375 completions trailed only Gannon (418) and Peyton Manning (392)...only Gannon (10) had more 300-yard passing games...threw 24 TD passes, the most by a Bills QB since Jim Kelly had a club-record 33 in 1991...with two rushing touchdowns in '02, matched his career total heading into the season and became the first Bills QB with two in a season since Jim Kelly in 1996...topped 400 passing yards in 2 of his first 5 games with the Bills (there were only two in franchise history before '02)...in game 2 at Min. (9/15) he went over 30,000 career passing yards and

QUICKCLICKS - BUFFALOBILLS.COM

- Bledsoe has started at QB for all 32 Bills games over the last two seasons. That streak of starts is the longest by a Bills QB since Jim Kelly started 46 straight from 1992-94 and ranks as the fourth-longest streak ever by a Buffalo signal-caller.
- Is one of just six NFL quarterbacks to start every game over the course of the last two seasons. The other five: Tom Brady (NE), Aaron Brooks (NO), Brett Favre (GB), Trent Green (KC) and Peyton Manning (Ind.).
- Among active quarterbacks, only Brett Favre and Vinny Testaverde have more career completions, attempts, passing yards and touchdowns than Bledsoe.
- Drew continues to move up the NFL's all-time charts in career passing categories. Entering 2004, he ranks ninth all-time in career completions, eighth in career attempts, and 12th in career passing yardage.
- After just two seasons with the Bills, Drew ranks fourth in franchise history in attempts and completions and is fifth in passing yards. He also boasts the lowest career interception percentage in team history at 2.5% (1,081-27).
- In his career, Bledsoe has four overtime touchdown passes, the most in NFL history. The only other players to throw more than one: Terry Bradshaw (3), Dan Fouts (2), Warren Moon (2), and Brian Sipe (2).

reached the plateau in his 126th career game, tying Brett Favre as the third fastest in NFL history to reach 30,000 (Dan Marino did it in 114 & Warren Moon in 125)...ended the Vikings and Bears OT games with TD passes; they were his 3rd and 4th career OT touchdown passes and gave him more than any other QB in NFL history...was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week after the Vikings game for the 7th time in his career and was also named the AFC Offensive Player of the Month in September, his second career Player of the Month selection...opened the season with a memorable outing vs. NYJ (9/8) that saw him bring the Bills back to tie the game at 31 on a 29-yard TD strike to Eric Moulds on 4th-and-9 with 0:34 remaining before falling in OT; set the tone for the offense with a huge block on DT Jason Ferguson on a reverse...enjoyed a record day and engineered game-winning OT TD drive at Min. (9/15), ending the game with a 48-yard score to Peerless Price; it marked his 3rd career TD pass in OT tying Terry Bradshaw for the NFL record; also recorded 20th 4th quarter comeback of career; was 3-3 for 29 yards on drive which led to 54-yard FG as regulation ended; set career-high and Bills single-game record with 463 passing yards (old personal record: 426 yards, 11/13/94; old Bills record: 419 yards, Joe Ferguson, 10/9/83); also set Bills single-game record with 49 attempts without an interception (old record: 46 by Joe Ferguson, 9/23/84 and Jim Kelly, 11/7/93); became 24th player in NFL to reach 30,000 career passing yards and became 4th fastest QB (in terms of games) to reach 30,000 yards...led the Bills to their second victory of '02 vs. Chi. (9/29) ending it with the game-winning 26-yard pass to Travis Henry in overtime; set a new NFL record with his 4th career TD pass in overtime (Terry Bradshaw - 3); it was the 10th four touchdown game of his career (Last - 10/1/00 at Denver) and was the first by a Bills QB since Jim Kelly had four, 12/10/95 at St. L....the next week vs. Oak. (10/6) he set new club record for attempts without an INT at 175 before throwing one on his 27th attempt; it marked the 2nd longest streak of his career (179 attempts, 10/23/95 - 11/26/95) and the 10th streak of 100+ attempts without an interception in his career...at Hou. (10/13) the Bills trailed 24-17 entering the 4th quarter but Bills offense went on two TD drives to grab their third win of the year; was Bledsoe's 21st "comeback" game of career and the 2nd of the season...in his first outing against his former team vs. NE (11/3) he threw for 300+ yards for the 5th time of season (31st of career) and extended streak of starts with a touchdown to 9 games (longest streak of any Bills QB to start his career)...topped 3,000 yard mark for the season at KC (11/17); it marked the 2nd time with 3,000+ yards in first 10 games (also in 1994); threw a 7-yard strike to Moulds to extend streak of starts with a TD to 10 games (longest streak of any Bills QB to start his career); had TD streak broken the next week at NYJ (11/24)...recorded 1st rushing touchdown as a Bill (3rd of career) on 2-yard plunge vs. Mia. (12/1) and also had two touchdown passes of 50+ yards (73 yards to Price, 57 yards to Moulds)...posted 7th 300-yd game of 2002 and 33rd of career in loss at NE (12/8) and set a club record for 300-yard games in a season (old: Jim Kelly, 6 in 1991); it marked the 10th time in club history a QB had two consecutive 300-yard games (3rd by Bledsoe in '02)...with first completion vs. SD (12/15) established new club record for single-season passing yards (old record: 3,844 - Jim Kelly, 1991)...surpassed the 4,000 yard passing mark for the season in loss at GB (12/22), marking the 3rd 4,000-yd season of career; 10-0 loss to the Packers marked just the 2nd time in career that his team has been shut out (other: 6-0 loss, 11/28/93 vs. NYJ)...collected 2nd rushing TD of season (4th of career) on a 7-yard carry in season finale vs. Cin (12/29)...2001 Started first two games of the year at QB, extending his consecutive starts streak to 34

before suffering a chest injury in the fourth quarter of game 2 vs. NYJ (9/23) on a hit by Mo Lewis... was inactive and did not dress for the next four contests, starting with game 3 vs. Ind. (9/30)...was the third QB/inactive for games 7-9...was the #2 quarterback but did not play in the final seven games of the regular season and also for the opening playoff game vs. Oak....returned to action in AFC Championship Game at Pittsburgh (1/27) when he replaced an injured Tom Brady (ankle) with 1:40 to go in the second quarter with Patriots driving at the Steelers 40-yard line; completed three straight passes to WR David Patten including an 11-yard TD; played the entire second half to lead the Patriots to the AFC Championship victory... was the #2 QB but did not play in Super Bowl XXXVI win vs. St. Louis (2/3)...2000!!!

Started every game despite playing with a jammed thumb, an injury he suffered at midseason... became the Patriots all-time leading passer in the second quarter at Den. (10/1) on a 26-yard pass to Kevin Faulk; moved ahead of Steve

Grogan (26,886)... reached the 3,000-yard passing plateau for a team-record seventh time vs. Mia. (12/24)...became fourth quarterback in NFL history to have seven consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, joining Dan Marino (9), Brett Favre (9) and John Elway (7)... set a career-high and finished third on the team with 158 rushing yards... rushed for a career-high 30 yards on 8 carries vs. TB (9/3)...tied a franchise record at Ind. (10/22) when he directed an 18-play scoring drive to (11/23) but still led the team on a 15-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a 25-yard TD pass to Shawn Jefferson with just 0:29 remaining in the game to give the Patriots a 26-23 victory; finished the game with a (non-OT) career-high of 423 yards after completing 28 of 54 passes with two TDs in the game; it earned him the NFL's Miller Lite Player of the Week and AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors; it was the fourth 400-yard game of his career...after missing an entire week of practice, he started the following week vs. Buf. (11/29) and completed his second consecutive come-from-behind, game-winning TD, this time with a 1-yard pass to Ben Coates with no time on the clock; it marked the first time in NFL history that a quarterback led his team to consecutive come-from-behind victories and game-winning TDs in the final 30 seconds of each game; finished the game with 246 yards and 3 TDs (28 of 43 passing) and became the first player since the award's inception to earn back-to-back NFL Miller Lite Player of the Week honors...followed up with a 327-yard effort (on 21 of 34 attempts) in a 23-9 victory at Pit. (12/6), highlighted by a career-long 86-yard TD pass to Terry Glenn...in addition to the Miami and Buffalo wins, also orchestrated fourth quarter comebacks vs. Ten. (9/20) and at N.O. (10/

4), giving him 14 fourth quarter come-from-behind wins for his career; trailing 16-13 in the fourth quarter, completed 3 of 4 passes for 65 yards and a TD vs. Titans to secure a 27-16 win; against Saints, with the score knotted at 27, he completed 6 of 8 attempts for 79 yards to set up game-winning field goal in a 30-27 victory...in his final game of the season at StL (12/13), moved ahead of Steve Grogan (1,879 career completions) as the franchise's all-time completion leader with a 4-yard pass to Lovett Purnell...despite missing two games and starting three others with a broken finger, still finished among the AFC's leading passers with 481 attempts (4th), 263 completions (4th), 3,633 yards (2nd) and 20 TDs (5th tie)...14 interceptions in 1998 were a career low...connected on 7 passes of 50 yards or more for the second consecutive season...1997 Started every game, extending his consecutive-games started streak to 44 games... earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl and eclipsed the 3,500-yard passing plateau for the fourth consecutive season...was once again among the league leaders in most passing categories... completed 314 (2nd in the NFL) of 522 passes (3rd) for 3,706 yards (4th) and 28 TDs (3rd)...his +13 TD-to-interception differential ranked third in the league and his 87.7 quarterback rating set a single-season career high and ranked third in the AFC... led the Patriots to their second consecutive division title - a franchise first - and guided them to the playoffs for the third time in four seasons...entering the season, had completed 4 passes of 50 yards or more but completed 7 passes of 50 yards or more in '97, including three to Troy Brown...led the league in third down completion percentage (.600) completing 102 of 170 attempts...recorded 10 of his 28 TDs on third downs, which also led the league...opened the season with a near flawless performance, completing 26 of 39 passes (.667) for 340 yards and 4 TDs vs. SD (8/31); recorded a quarterback rating of 128.2 - which was the third highest single-game rating of his career...next week at Ind. (9/7), completed 15 of 25 passes for 267 yards and 4 TDs and finished with a 136.2 quarterback rating - at that point, the highest rating of his career; became the first player in NFL history to throw at least 4 TD passes in each of the first two weeks of the season; 8 TD passes in two games marked highest two-game total of his career; 8 TD passes were spread to eight different receivers...not until third week of the season vs. NYJ (9/14) did he throw his first interception...at NYJ (10/19), completed passes for 294 yards, including a season-long 67-yard completion to Troy Brown; added a pair of TD passes to give him 17 through the first seven games, which surpassed his season totals in 1993 (15) and 1995 (13)...did not throw an interception in a victory at Buf. (11/9) and extended his consecutive games with a TD streak to 11

a 24-yard TD, his first against Dolphins in '97; passing totals were 16 of 32 for 139 yards, but his TD pass to Brown proved to be enough in a 17-3 game ...in divisional playoff game at Pit. (1/3/98), passed for 264 yards - a postseason career-high - while completing 23 of 44 attempts (.523), but was intercepted twice and fumbled due to a blindside hit on the team's final possession...1996!!!

Started all 19 games for the Patriots, including playoffs, the most single-season starts by a QB in franchise history...for the second time in three seasons, eclipsed the 4,000-yard passing plateau and earned a return trip to the Pro Bowl...led the league in pass attempts (623) for the third consecutive season and in completions (373) for the second time in three years...after an 0-2 start, guided the team to victories in 11 of the next 14 games to claim the AFC East title...Patriots then defeated Pittsburgh and Jacksonville to claim the AFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl XXXI...opened the season at Mia. (9/1); Pats were without WRs Terry Glenn and Vincent Brisby and lost Shawn Jefferson during the game with a concussion; suffered a 24-10 season-opening loss to the Dolphins...in the home opener, led team to a 31-0 blanking of AZ (9/15); completed 21 of 35 attempts (.600) for 221 yards and 3 TDs without an interception, but it was his pickup of a first down on 4th-and-1 when he jumped over a defender for a 1-yard gain that will be most remembered...completed his first 8 pass attempts vs. Jax. (9/22) the following week and led the Pats on a 49-yard drive to set up the game-winning kick in an OT victory...the next week at Bal. (10/6) threw for a season-high and single-game career-tying 4 TD passes in a 46-38 win; completed 25 of 39 attempts (.641) for 310 yards...vs. Mia. (11/3) completed 30 of 41 attempts (.732) for a season-high 419 yards; his 419-yard passing performance was the second-highest single-game passing total in franchise history (426 vs. Min. on 11/13/94)...at NYJ (11/10) finished with 297 yards (24-of-34) and 3 TDs in a dramatic 31-27 come-from-behind victory...rebounded from tough outing vs. Dal. the next week with his fourth 300-yard game of the season and the 13th of his career at NYG (12/21); finished game with 301 yards and a pair of TDs, including the game-winning TD pass to Coates with just 1:32 remaining in the game; eclipsed the 4,000-yard passing plateau for the second time in three seasons to become just the fourth quarterback in NFL history to post multiple 4,000-yard passing seasons...completed 14 of 24 attempts for 164 yards and a TD in a 28-3 victory vs. Pit. (1/5/97)...connected on 20 of 33 attempts for 172 yards in the AFC Championship Game victory over Jax (1/12/97) ...closed out the season by throwing for 253 yards and a pair of TDs in Super Bowl XXXI vs. Green Bay (1/26/97)...1995!!! For the second straight season, attempted (636) and completed (323) more passes for more yards (3,507) than any other quarterback in Patriots history; did so in just 15 games...unlike his record-setting 1994 season (when the Patriots relied on Bledsoe's passing far more than the running game) the Pats had a far more productive running game that resulted in the franchise's all-time single-season rushing leader - Curtis Martin, 1,487 yards...had a streak of 23 consecutive starts snapped when he missed a game at Atl. (10/1) while recovering from a separated left (non-throwing) shoulder injury, suffered in the third week of the season at SF (9/17)...for the second consecutive year, attempted more passes than any other NFL quarterback and ranked second in the AFC in pass completions...established another franchise record during a seven-game stretch (10/15 to 11/26) at midseason when he attempted 179 consecutive passes without an interception, breaking the record of 178 (Tony Eason, 1986)...his record-breaking streak ended with his next pass (180th attempt), which was intercepted by Buffalo's Bryce Paup (11/26) on the Bills goal line...opened the season vs. Cle. (9/3) and helped guide the Patriots to a come-from-behind 17-14 victory; trailing 14-9 with

YOUNGEST TO REACH 10,000-YD PASSING PLATEAU

At the age of 23, Drew Bledsoe became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard passing plateau, surpassing the pace set by Dan Marino in 1985. The youngest quarterbacks to reach the 10,000-yard passing milestone are listed below.

quarterback

PRO Initially signed with the Bills 8/22/01 after being released by the Seahawks and spent the entire 2001 and '02 seasons on Buffalo's 53-man roster...began 2003 with Buffalo but was released on 9/4/03 after reaching an injury settlement (finger); was re-signed on 12/3/03 and dressed for the final four games...started his pro career as an undrafted rookie free agent with Philadelphia in 2000 but was released prior to the start of that regular season...was then signed by Seattle and spent the first part of 2000 on the Seahawks practice squad before moving up to their 53-man roster in November of that year.

2003 SEASON Began the year as the team's third QB behind Drew Bledsoe and Alex Van Pelt...injured a finger in preseason vs. StL. (8/23)...was placed on I.R. on 8/31 and reached an injury settlement on 9/4...returned home to Arizona for the next three months but re-signed with Buffalo on 12/3 and was on the roster for the final four games...after failing to see action as the third QB in games 13 and 14, he was the #2 QB in the season's last two contests after an injury to Van Pelt; he saw action in the second half of each game in relief of Bledsoe...in game 15 vs. Mia. (12/21) he came in for the final drive of a 20-3 loss and completed 3 of 4 passes for 41 yards and rushed once for five yards...the next week at NE (12/27), he replaced Bledsoe in the third quarter, completing 11 of 14 passes for 119 yards with an INT and no TDs...his only other action as a Bill to that point was in the season finale of 2001 at Miami. 2002 Was on the Bills 53-man roster for the entire season but was the team's third quarterback-deactivation for all 16 contests.

2001 Was inactive as the third quarterback for the first eight regular season games behind Rob Johnson and Alex Van Pelt...was the second QB from game 9 through 16 following injury to Johnson...did not see any action until season finale at Mia. (1/6) when he was forced into duty after Van Pelt suffered a shoulder injury...entered the game at the beginning of the second quarter and completed 15 of 33 passes for 201 yards (all career-highs) and threw first NFL touchdown pass (12 yards) to FB Larry Centers in the third quarter; also recorded first rushing statistics of career with a 10-yard gain on his only attempt...before the game at Miami, had only attempted one career pass previously - an incompleting the season before for Seattle. 2000 Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Eagles but was released at the end of training camp on 8/27/00...was then picked up by Seattle on 8/30/00 and served as the Seahawks practice squad quarterback before being elevated to the active roster in November of 2000...only action came vs. Oak. (12/16) when he replaced Jon Kitna for three plays and his only pass attempt was incomplete.

COLLEGE Had a fine four-year career at Northern Arizona, setting school records in passing yards (11,400), touchdown passes (86), and passing yards per game (278)...was an All-Big Sky Conference selection as a senior in 1999 after completing 246 of 420 passes (58.6%) for 3,057 yards and 31 touchdowns with only seven interceptions...had 18 career 300-yard games and four 400-yard games and was the first quarterback in school history to post three 3,000-yard seasons...set a school record with seven touchdown throws against Cal-State Sacramento as a freshman in 1996...later that year, he shattered the school record with 474 passing yards versus Montana.

PERSONAL Full Name-Travis Martin Brown...attended Moon Valley High School in his hometown and birthplace of Phoenix, AZ...earned Academic All-Big Sky honors...returned to school and graduated May of 2002 with a degree in history... off the field, Travis has been active in Athletes in Action throughout his career... participates in various Bills community events including the Arts program to benefit Hospice and the Boys & Girls Club...has two brothers that played college football, Alan at Missouri Southern and Mark at Arizona State...wife's name is Corinna...couple has two daughters, Makayla Mae (4/6/02) and Tatum Grace (5/11/04).

IN THE COMMUNITY

In his second year with the Bills, Joe Burns continued to prove himself as one of the team's top community contributors. A very active player in the community, Joe talked about the importance of Helmet Safety at Valley Community Center where he helped distribute helmets all of the kids. Joe also supported Habitat for Humanity as the Bills dedicated their fourth home and participated in the Kids Escaping Drugs telethon. This past offseason, Burns is a mentor for Big Brother/Big Sisters in Boston, MA.

PRO III Acquired with the team's first-round pick and the draft's 21st overall selection in 2001; the Bills initially had the 14th overall pick but traded it to Tampa Bay in exchange for the Bucs' first (21st) and second round (51st) picks...was the first cornerback selected in the 2001 draft.

2003 SEASON III Started all 16 games at RCB for the second straight season; extended his streak of consecutive starts to 40...recorded three interceptions and led the team in that category for the third time in as many seasons with the club; only two other Bills have ever held the team's sole INT title for three straight campaigns: Mark Kelso (1987-89) and Charles Romes (1984-86)...in addition to his CB duties, also handled punt returns for the season's final seven games...his 78 total tackles finished fifth on the team...notched his first INT of the season in the opener vs. NE (9/7) when he hauled in a tipped Tom Brady pass in the back of the end zone and got both feet down for a touchback...his other two INTs for the season both came off Jay Fiedler in game 3 at Mia. (9/21); the first pick stopped Miami's opening drive at the Bills 9-yard line in the first quarter; the other theft came in the fourth quarter when he jumped a route and took the INT 54 yards for the Bills only score of the game; the 54-yard INT return was the longest by a Bills player since Cornelius Bennett's 69-yarder vs. NE (11/26/95)...finished with 10 tackles (one shy of his career-best) vs. Ind. (11/23)...recorded a season-long 35-yard punt return at Ten. (12/14); had a 24-yard punt return the next week vs. Mia. (12/21) and a 30-yarder in the finale at NE (12/27)...

2002 III In his second NFL season, continued to hold down the starting right cornerback position and opened all 16 games there; extended his streak of consecutive starts to 24...led the team in interceptions for the second straight season by notching six; that total tied for second in the AFC behind only Oakland's Rod Woodson (8) and was tied for ninth-most in the NFL...on 10/20/02 at Miami, he earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors and had one of the top days ever by a Buffalo defensive back when he tied the franchise record with three INTs (one for a TD)...recorded 7 tackles (5 solo) at Min. (9/15) and turned in a great play on a jump ball in the corner of the end zone vs. Randy Moss...was part of a Bills secondary which held the Bears receivers to 188 yards vs. Chi. (9/29); made a touchdown saving tackle on Bears KR Rahib

Abdullah at the CHI 40-yard line early in the 3rd quarter with the Bills ahead 20-14; returned fifth punt of career in the third quarter for a six-yard gain (1st since 11/25/01 vs. Mia.)...tied the franchise record with three interceptions and finished just one shy of the NFL record at Mia. (10/20) earning him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career; three interceptions matched his career total entering the game and gave him a share of the franchise record with eight other players (most recent - Mark Kelso vs. Den., 12/12/92); recorded Buffalo's first interception of the season and fourth of his career when he picked off Ray Lucas at the Buffalo 4-yard line in the first quarter that not only killed the drive but led to a Bills TD; recorded his 2nd INT later in the second quarter and returned it 29 yards for a TD that put the Bills up 17-10; it was his second career INT for a TD and his third career score (other: a punt return for a TD); recorded his record-tying third interception in the 3rd quarter to kill another Miami drive at the Buffalo eight-yard-line; nearly had his 4th INT but couldn't hold on...recorded 4th INT of season (7th of career), picking off Jay Fielder to start the 4th quarter vs. Mia. (12/1)...ranked 3rd on the team with eight tackles (six solo) vs. SD (12/15)...picked off Brett Favre to record 5th INT of the season (8th of career) at GB (12/22); INT came one play after he muffed a punt that gave Green Bay the ball on Buffalo's 36 yard-line...ended his 2nd season in the NFL with a strong performance, recording his 9th career INT (6th of 2002), collecting a season-high nine tackles (2nd on the team) and defending four passes vs. Cin.(12/29)...2001 III Had an outstanding rookie season in which he played in every game and started 11 games at right cornerback...cracked starting lineup in season's fifth game and never relinquished the spot...was selected as the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated's Peter King...was also named to Football News' All-Rookie Team...finished with 80 tackles (63 solo) to rank fourth on the team... led the team with three interceptions; those three thefts were the most by a Bills rookie since Jeff Nixon had six in 1979...also led the team in kickoff returns and took one of his four punt returns 66 yards for a TD (vs. Ind., 11/4)...recorded his first NFL interception and returned it 48 yards for his first NFL touchdown in first quarter of season opener at Ind. (9/23) in the season's second game...made his first career start in win at Jax (10/18) and played exceptionally well, holding WR Jimmy Smith to 49 yards and breaking up two passes...started his second game and had a solid performance recording

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In his first season as a Buffalo Bill, Jon was very involved in the Western New York community. As a member of the 2004 Tops Rookie Club, Jon attended one community service activity with all the rookies each month during the season. Visits included: a trip to the Buffalo Historical Society with Martin Luther King School # 39, an event with the Tops Cooking School at the Babcock Boys and Girls Club, serving Thanksgiving Dinner to kids at the Northwest Buffalo Community Center, and hosting a Holiday party for kids from the Salvation Army, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, and the Seneca Nation.

In addition to the Rookie Club visits, Jon could be found visiting local schools, hospitals and at other events every Tuesday during the year. Wherever he goes, Jon always captivates his audience with magic. He is a professional magician and has performed in Las Vegas, NV but during last season, he used his magical talents to entertain at the Roswell Park/Carly's Club Halloween party.

IN THE COMMUNITY

London has been very involved in community activity throughout his career and last year was no exception.

Over the past two years, London has encouraged fans to donate their used phones to help victims of domestic violence. Through Verizon Wireless' Hopeline program, the phones Fletcher helps collect are refurbished and recycled or sold. Proceeds are used to purchase wireless phones for use by domestic violence victims in emergency or threatening situations. Hopeline also makes financial grants to domestic violence organizations. Fans that donate their cell phone on game day received a London Fletcher poster.

TIM RUSSERT TAKES TIME OUT FOR BILLS

Famed political analyst and Buffalo native, Tim Russert, took time out of his busy schedule to travel to Ralph Wilson Stadium and watch his Bills defeat the Washington Redskins 24-7 in 2003. The moderator of "Meet the Press" and author of his latest top selling book, Big Russ and Me, Russert is a self proclaimed Bills fanatic. Over the years Russert's house has been named on numerous lists as one of the best places to watch football every Sunday.

During his visit to Buffalo, Russert spent time at mid-field during Darryl Talley's Wall of Fame induction ceremony and even managed to catch up with his fellow John Carroll College alum, London Fletcher, on the sidelines.

PHIL MICKELSON VISITS BILLS

A huge NFL fan, Phil Mickelson visited the Bills at training camp last August while he was in Rochester for the PGA Championship. The most-famous left-handed golfer threw passes and signed autographs right-handed ("I'm right-handed in everything but golf," he said) and mingled with Bills players and staff. "It's been fun for me to come out here and watch these guys and see how big they are. And see how good they are," Mickelson said."

In 2004, Mickelson captured his first major tournament championship with a thrilling victory at The 2004 Masters. Mickelson birdied five of the last seven holes and sank an 18-foot putt on the dramatic final hole to win the tournament by a stroke.

He was asked during his camp visit whether he felt a common bond with the Bills, who also have a history of finishing just short in the quest for that elusive championship. "I haven't looked at it that way," he said. "Hopefully this will be the year we both break through."

While Mickelson and the Bills struggled in 2003, perhaps that prediction was just a year early for both.

IN THE COMMUNITY

After meeting a young boy battling cancer at Roswell Park Cancer Institute, Brian focused on channeling his efforts to pediatrics. He has been a strong supporter of the pediatric unit at Roswell since coming to Buffalo in 2001 and is the spokesperson for Keith's Classic/Carly's Club, one of the largest fundraisers hosted by the Institute. He was recently named the Carly's Club "Athlete of the Month" for October 2003 and annually attends their events including the Pediatric Halloween Party, Holiday Party for Kids and Lighting of the "Tree of Hope". This year, Brian suggested the Bills host the annual Halloween Party for pediatric patients from Roswell and Women & Children's Hospital in the Bills Fieldhouse. The party was a huge success with over 300 children and their families attending this night where "cancer wasn't an issue". Brian, with the support of Dunlop Tires, started the "Kicking for a Cure" pledge program to raise money and awareness for Carly's Club at Roswell Park in 2002. His most important contribution to Roswell, however, is the time he spends with the kids and their families. Brian visits the hospital every Tuesday during the season and continues to keep in touch with the families as they battle this horrible disease.

Besides his involvement in Roswell, Brian is also very active with the team's community programs and is a spokesperson for the 2002 and 2003 "Rush for Reading Challenge". He also thanked the local firefighters on the anniversary of 9/11, was a guest instructor at NFL 101 for Women, was a spokesperson for "School is Cool", supported the Bills Courage House fundraiser, visited the VA Hospital on Veterans Day, served Thanksgiving lunch at the City Mission, attended "Shop with a Jock" and presented the Community Quarterback Awards to local volunteers. Brian tirelessly participates in NFL Community Tuesdays and spends his only day off during the season giving back to Buffalo.

In November 2003 he started the Brian Moorman Foundation and is planning fundraisers to build on that foundation to continue to support the local community.

- Surpassed Elbert Dubenion for fourth on the most total TD in Bills history by catching a 36-yard touchdown pass at Jax. (9/14), and also passed Thurman Thomas to move up to second on the Bills list of most career receptions with 506.
- After registering a reception in every game in which he played in 2003, Moulds increased his streak of games with a reception to 94, first on the Bills all-time list.
- Enjoyed an outstanding season in '02 and for the third time in seven seasons, ended the campaign in Honolulu as a member of the AFC Pro Bowl squad (he also went following the 1998 and '00 seasons). The only other receiver in franchise history with multiple Pro Bowl selections is Andre Reed (7)
- In '02 he became the first Bills player ever to record 100 catches and in doing so broke his own franchise record for receptions in a season (94 in 2000).
- Also finished '02 one shy of the team record for TD catches/season (Bill Brooks, 11 in 1995). Aside from Brooks, the only other Bills ever to have 10 receiving TDs in a season were Andre Reed (1991), Bob Chandler (1976) and Elbert Dubenion (1964).
- His 1,292 receiving yards in 2002 ranked as the fifth-most in team history and Moulds now holds 3 of the top 5 spots in the Bills record book.
- Has topped the 50-catch plateau in 6 straight seasons and in his career; only Andre Reed has done it more times (13 total and 9 straight).

Bledsoe and tied the game with just :26 remaining; In the 4th quarter alone he had 95 yards on 4 catches...at Min. (9/15) he was double-teamed often but still caught 8 passes for 86 yards; with his 11-yard catch in the second quarter, Moulds moved past Dubenion and into second place on Buffalo's all-time receiving yardage list...his second 100-yard receiving yardage day of '02 came in week 4 vs. Chi. (9/29) when he led the team with 8 catches for 124 yards and a TD; biggest catch was an acrobatic 30-yarder on the first offensive play of OT that helped win the game...topped 100 again the next week vs. Oak. (10/6) with 8 catches for 112 yards...at Hou. (10/13) he was held under 8 catches for the first time in '02 but had 56 receiving yards on 4 receptions, including a 23-yard TD in the fourth quarter that tied the game at 24...at Mia. (10/20) he caught 3 passes for 81 yards including a 70-yard TD from Drew Bledsoe in the 2nd quarter;

it was his 14th career catch of 50+ yards and was the 4th-longest catch of his career...vs. Det. (10/27) he led the team with 9 grabs for 123 yards and a long of 42 that set up a TD; with the effort he topped the 50-catch plateau for the 5th straight season/5th time in his career...vs. Mia. (12/1) he topped the 1,000-receiving yard mark for the 3rd time in his career on the strength of a 5-catch, 130-yard performance that saw him catch a 57-yard TD and had another grab of 47 that set-up another TD.; it was his 5th 100-yard game of '02 and 21st of his career...at NE (12/8), his 12-yard TD catch in the 3rd quarter was his 36th career TD catch, breaking a tie with Dubenion and giving him sole possession of 2nd place on the Bills all-time list (Reed is #1 with 86); he also caught a 4-yard TD later in the game (37th career), giving him his first multiple-TD game receiving of 2002 and the fourth of his career...closed the year with a 9-catch, 75-yard game vs. Cin. (12/29) and caught his 10th TD of the year. 2001!!! Started all 16 games for the second time in his career (and second straight season)... suffered a shoulder/sternum injury at Indy in week 2 but played through it...led team with 904 receiving yards on 67 catches with five touchdowns and in doing so reached 50 receptions for the fourth consecutive season...caught a pass in every game to extend his club record streak to 65 games...during season moved from eighth on the franchise's all-time receptions list to third and moved from sixth to third in receiving yards...at Jax (10/18), was 4-60 receiving with a 27-yard TD reception...the next week at SD (10/28) he had 7 receptions for 70 yards; his 31-yard reception with 4:48 in the fourth quarter gave the Bills a first down to set up Travis Henry's 3-yard rushing TD that gave the Bills their first lead in the game...vs. NYJ (10/7) caught five passes for 107 yards and a 46-yard TD; it marked the first TD and first 100-yard game of the season for Moulds after battling a sternum injury suffered in week two...with three catches at NE (11/11) passed Pete Metzelaars for third on the Bills receptions list, behind only Reed and Thomas on the franchise's all-time list...vs. Sea. (11/18), moved past Frank Lewis for third place in receiving yards behind Reed and Elbert Dubenion...against NFL's third-ranked pass defense vs. Mia. (11/25), caught six passes for a career-high tying 196 yards and two TDs; scores came on an 80-yard catch and run in the first quarter and a one-handed grab for a 54-yard TD in the third; the 196 receiving yards represented the NFL's highest single-game total (regulation) in 2001 and tied for fifth most in team history; last Bill with more was James Lofton's 220 on 10/21/91 vs. Cincy; the two TDs moved him into sole possession of fifth place on the team's receiving TD list (Metzelaars)...closed the season with 82 yards on six catches in finale at Mia. (1/6). 2000!!! Was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl, his second appearance in Hawaii in three years...established a then-club record with his 94 receptions...his 1,326 yards were the second-highest total in team history, trailing only his own mark of 1,368 set in 1998... finished fourth in the AFC in both receptions and yardage...posted seven 100-yard games in 2000... caught only two passes in the season opener vs. Ten. (9/3) but made the play of the game when he caught a three-yard pass with less than a minute remaining and took off for 33 more to set up the game-winning field goal...posted his first 100-yard outing of the year in week two vs. GB (9/10) when he caught seven passes for 103 yards...caught his first touchdown of the year in week three at NYJ (9/17)...caught nine passes for 112 yards vs. Indy (10/1), including a 40-yard touchdown pass late in the 4th quarter which would have been the game-winner except for a Colts FG as time expired...tied a team record in games 6-8 as he notched three consecutive 100-yard games; the first came vs. SD (10/16) when he caught 11 passes for 170 yards; second came the following week at Min. (10/17) as he set an individual high with 12 receptions for 135 yards; caught his third TD of the season against the Vikings; the third consecutive 100-yard outing came vs. NYJ (10/22) when his finished with 137 yards...caught eight passes for 102 yards and a TD at TB (11/26)...his seventh 100-yard outing, 101 yds. at Sea. (12/23), was memorable because both he and teammate Peerless Price topped the 100-yard plateau, marking just the 12th time that the Bills have had two 100-yd receivers in the same game and the first since 9/27/92 (Andre Reed and James Lofton); that game also marked just the 6th time in team history that the Bills had a 100-yard rusher, 100-yard receiver and a 300-yard passer in the same game. 1999!!! Followed up his breakout campaign of

Eric served as the honorary chairman of "Time to Hoop", Buffalo '04 during the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship that was hosted at Buffalo's HSBC Arena in the spring of 2004. As chairman, Eric participated in a press conference to announce the partnership and hosted hundreds of kids at an open practice when the college teams came to town to prepare for the tournament games.

BILLS HONOR SAM DANA

The Buffalo Bills formally honored Sam Dana at Ralph Wilson Stadium on Sept. 28, 2003 (vs. Philadelphia) as the NFL's oldest living alum. Dana, a longtime resident of Kenmore, N.Y., played for the NFL's New York Yankees in 1928. Last August, Dana celebrated his 100th birthday with a visit to the Buffalo Bills Bausch & Lomb Training Camp at St. John Fisher College. In addition to playing for the Yankees, Dana played college football at Columbia University and Canisius College. At Columbia, in 1922, he was a gridiron teammate of baseball legend Lou Gehrig.

IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2003 Bobby helped kickoff Tackle Math with the Buffalo Bills with 1000 6th graders from various Buffalo Public Schools. The math program is designed to help increase interest and improve math scores among students by combining the Bills with the New York State math curriculum. "I use math a lot in everyday life," said Shaw. "There are times when you don't even think about it. It's something that you carry throughout your whole life. Education is so important and everyone needs to take it seriously."

DID YOU KNOW...

During the offseason, Spikes showed his communicative talents by spending time as a guest host on NFL Network's Total Access show and being part of ESPN's player roundtable during the NFL Draft. "Being a guest host for the NFL Network and ESPN was something I wanted to do because I wanted to show that I have talents other than football," Spikes said. "I feel like I am good at a lot of things, and I am always trying to show people my other talents. Most of all, I just wanted to show everyone another side of myself."

(11/23) by making a key block for Sammy Morris' 7-yard run up the middle...also snapped the ball in extra point and field goal situations. 2002 Despite the fact that he hadn't played the position since college, started all 16 games at center in his first season with the Bills... anchored an offensive line that was a big reason the Bills were able to have such offensive success in 2002 - QB Drew Bledsoe set 10 team passing records, RB Travis Henry ran for the fifth-highest single-season total in team history and WR Eric Moulden set franchise marks for catches in a season and had the fifth-best receiving yardage year by a Bill...as a team, the Bills topped 400 yards of offense five times and scored

20+ points in 11 of 16 games... 2001 Returned successfully from the knee injury that he suffered in week two of 2000 and went on to start all 16 games at left tackle for the Broncos... was first pro season in which he started every game and was the second time in his career he played in all 16 games... 2000 Saw action on offense and special teams in each of the first two games... replaced Tony Jones at left tackle for a short time in the 3rd qtr. of the opener at StL. (9/4)...next week, suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on punt coverage in the 3rd qtr. vs. Atl. (9/10), and was placed on injured reserve on 9/12/00...underwent surgery in mid-September... 1999 Played in all 16 games and made four starts at left tackle in place of the injured Tony Jones (triceps)...starts came at Sea. (11/14), vs. Oak. (11/22), at Det. (12/25) and vs. S.D. (1/2)...after making his first two starts moved back behind

Jones until Jones was lost for the final two games with an aggravation of the original injury vs. Sea. (12/19)...made his first NFL start at Sea. (11/14)...also handled the snapping duties for all punts and placements in 1999, and made three special teams tackles...saw brief action at right tackle at Oak. (10/10), and played the whole second half at left tackle at SD (11/7) after Jones left the game with knee and triceps injuries...also saw action on offense at Jax (12/13), as a second tight end...1998!!! Was declared inactive (Fri.) for all 16 regular season and all three postseason games in his rookie season.

COLLEGE!!! Was a two-year starter on the offensive line at Tennessee, earning third-team All-America and first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior...started entire senior season at center, registering 87 knockdowns for a team that ranked fourth in the nation with an average of 482.8 yards per game in total offense...as a junior started the first eight games at left tackle and the last four at center...as a sophomore played in every game, starting the final two at right tackle...saw limited action with the field goal unit and as a reserve offensive tackle as a freshman after redshirting in 1993.

(1/19) and at StL. (1/27)...made an over-the-shoulder INT on Brad Johnson in the end zone of the NFC Wild Card game vs. TB...also recorded six tackles and one pass defense vs. TB...2000 Returned to the Pro Bowl, this time as a starter, after leading the Eagles with five INTs and finishing sixth on the club with 92 tackles...started all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests...held opponents without a reception in six games and did not have a pass thrown in his direction in three contests...at GB (9/17), intercepted Brett Favre with an over-the-shoulder catch...at NO (9/24), intercepted two passes for the 4th time in his career, also recovered a fumble by Ricky Williams which led to an Eagles TD...at AZ (10/15) intercepted Jake Plummer...at Cle. (12/10) made an over-the-shoulder INT off Doug Pederson at the Browns' 3-yd. line and also recovered a 4th qtr. fumble with under six minutes left and the Browns within striking distance...in the NFC Wild Card game vs. TB, helped hold the Bucs' WRs to just 3-30 receiving and he had 5 pass knockdowns.

1999 In just 14 games played, tied for 1st in the NFL with a career-high seven INTs while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career...became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since Bill Bradley did so in 1972...in addition to his thefts, the multi-talented cornerback ranked 5th on the team with a career-high 100 tackles, tied for 2nd in tackles for a loss (5), 2nd in forced fumbles (4) and 3rd in pass knockdowns (15)...was directly responsible for eight of the Eagles' league best 46 take-aways...was originally selected as the first alternate at cornerback in the Pro Bowl balloting...ended up playing in the game for an injured Deion Sanders and notched a game-high nine tackles...posted a career-high 15 tackles (12 solo) in the opener vs. AZ and also forced a fumble...vs. TB (9/19), became the first Eagles cornerback ever to record a sack and an INT in the same game (QB Trent Dilfer was his victim for both)...along with 12 tackles (2 for loss), posted an INT off of Kent Graham at NYG...vs. Dal., had 9 tackles, an INT off of Troy Aikman and a forced fumble of Emmitt Smith...a week later at Chi., his 35-yd. INT return off Cade McNown set up a FG, he later departed that game with a groin injury and was deactivated in games 7-8...returned to the starting lineup at Car. and posted an INT off of Brad Johnson vs. Wash. (11/14), he also forced a fumble by WR Albert Connell...vs. NE (12/19), notched two 4th qtr. INTs off of Drew Bledsoe in the Eagles 24-9 win.

1998 Despite a slow start to the season due to a quad injury suffered in the preseason, went on to share the team lead in INTs (2) with Brian Dawkins and rank 2nd on the club in passes knocked down with 13...reaggravated the quad injury in the season opener vs. Sea. and was sidelined for the next two contests, breaking a streak of 60 consecutive starts...also missed game 10 at Wash. due to a concussion suffered a week earlier vs. Det...notched INTs vs. GB's Brett Favre and Arz.'s Jake Plummer...also posted the first sack of his career (vs. Dal.'s Troy Aikman on Monday Night Football, 11/2). 1997 Entered the season paired with RCB Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of the top cornerback tandems in the league, but when Taylor's season ended with a knee injury in game 6, Vincent stepped up his play, matching up well against the opponents' top receiver week after week...started all 16 games at LCB and finished the season leading the Eagles in passes defended (23) and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in INTs (3 -- at Min., vs. Pit. and at Wash.)...starred in a 13-12 win over Dallas (10/26), limiting WR Michael Irvin to just three receptions, all in the 1st half...in the first Dal. game (9/15), broke up consecutive deep passes to Anthony Miller before being sidelined by a strained left shoulder...shared the punt return chores with Freddie Solomon for games 5-6. 1996 A highly sought after free agent "transition" player, Vincent officially became an Eagle on 3/3/96 and, along with RCB Bobby Taylor, provided the Eagles with one of the NFL's top cornerback duos...started all 16 games at the LCB spot...after missing the first two preseason games with a strained groin, returned to the lineup in a season-opening win at Wash....in the final seconds of a 31-21, game 9 win at Dal., Vincent etched his name into the NFL record books: with Dallas trailing by three and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' three, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass four yards deep in the end zone and returned it 14 yards, Willis then lateralled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yards for a game-clinching score...as such, the combined efforts of Vincent and Willis resulted in the longest INT return for a TD in NFL history

IN THE COMMUNITY

For years, Pat Williams has been the solid force in the center of the D-Line, and he is just as solid a contributor in the Buffalo community. For several years he has purchased 20 season tickets that he donates to deserving area youngsters for each home game. He is currently the spokesperson for several organizations including Junior Achievement (JA) and Kevin Guest House. As part of his support of JA, Pat was celebrity chair of their annual bowl-a-thon fundraiser. For Kevin Guest House, Pat was featured in an awareness campaign including print and radio.

During the 2002 and 2003 seasons Pat supported the Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Society of WNY through the "Sack MS" campaign. Pat was featured in the PSA with local media celebrities to encourage fans to participate in the program and pledge money per defensive sack to the MS Society.

Every Thanksgiving, Pat donates turkeys to families in Buffalo and this past year he personally delivered 300 turkeys to area families. For his community service Pat was named one of the 2003 Buffalo Bills/NFL Community All-Stars.

In March of 2004, Pat received honors including the Kevin Garvey Award from the Kevin Guest House of Buffalo, a residential facility for families with loved ones in the hospital, and also participated for the second year in the Junior Achievement Bowl-a-Thon fundraiser.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Coy began his community service in Buffalo as a member of the 2002 Rookie Club. Since then he has become a fixture at local community events. Coy is focused his talents and opportunities to support area youth. In July of 2003, he started the Coy Wire "Caring" Foundation. The mission is to provide Buffalo and the surrounding areas with a support structure focusing on promoting education, character building, goal setting skills and spiritual awareness.

He has developed the Most-High clothing line, a line of logo sports apparel to promote the mission and raise money for the Foundation. Fellow teammates; Lawyer Milloy, Takeo Spikes, Mark Campbell, Brian Moorman, Jonas Jennings and Eric Moulds have helped to promote the clothing line by purchasing and wearing numerous different pieces. More information on the clothing line can be found at MostHigh.com. A very self-disciplined and motivated player, Coy has already set the bar high for what he would like to accomplish off the field.

In addition to his community service with team programs and his foundation, he was a spokesperson for Tackle Math for two consecutive years, a spokesperson and celebrity reader with the Rush for Reading Challenge, the celebrity chair for the Kidney Foundation's Gift of Life Walk, guest speaker at the Make-a-Wish Foundation of Erie, PA as well as a visitor to some special kids at Buffalo Women & Children's Hospital.

GAME 1: BILLS 31, PATRIOTS 0

September 7, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (73,262)

The Bills started the 2003 season in very strong fashion with a convincing home win over the Patriots. While New England seemed to have Buffalo's number in '02, just the reverse was the case as the Bills posted their first shutout since '99 and just their second ever on opening day.

A contest that needed no additional storylines received another sizzling one on game week when the Patriots released their defensive captain and four-time Pro Bowl safety Lawyer Milloy on Tuesday and a day later he joined the Bills. Milloy, who started at SS and played nearly the entire game, was a big part of an outstanding overall defensive effort by a re-vamped Bills unit.

On the game-opening drive, the Bills offense went the length of the field and capped an impressive 80-yard drive with a 1-yard Travis Henry run. Key plays included completions to WR Bobby Shaw on a pair of third downs as well as a 19-yard interference call on Ty Law against Eric Moulds in the end zone that gave Buffalo the ball at the one. After sending the Pats three-and-out, the Bills moved 90 yards in 15 plays on their next drive and scored again when Drew Bledsoe hit TE Dave Moore with a 7-yard scoring pass. The drive was extended thanks to a defensive holding play on a Bills punt that sent the Buffalo offense back on the field. On the Pats eighth offensive play of the game, the lead swelled to 21-0 when DT Sam Adams picked off a Tom Brady pass and rumbled 37 yards into the end zone.

In addition to Milloy & Adams, another defensive newcomer who had an outstanding debut was LB Takeo Spikes. He made a number of huge hits and became the first Bills LB to post a multi-INT game since 1990 with his pair of picks off Tom Brady. In all, Brady threw 4 INTs and was held to just 123 yards on 14-28 passing. Milloy's fine day saw him break up a pass in the end zone leading to a Nate Clements interception and a sack of Brady on a third down blitz that forced a Patriot punt.

While the defense continued to keep the Pats off the scoreboard in the second half, Buffalo's offense added 10 fourth quarter points via a 9-yard Henry TD run and a 44-yard Rian Lindell FG.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 2 BILLS 38, JAGUARS 17

September 14, 2003 - ALLTEL Stadium - (58,613)

The Bills improved to 2-0 for the first time since 2000 after a convincing road win over the Jaguars that was the worst home loss in Jacksonville history.

For the second straight week, the Bills came out blazing and scored TDs on their first two drives of the game. Sammy Morris returned the opening kickoff 52 yards to the Jaguars 49 and on the first play from scrimmage, TE Mark Campbell was leveled but held onto a 26-yard pass from Drew Bledsoe. Five plays later, RB Travis Henry scored from a yard out to put Buffalo up 7-0. After sending the Jags three-and-out, Buffalo marched down the field again and a 24-yard Josh Reed catch aided a drive that ended with a 6-yard Henry run on third down. Momentum briefly shifted to the Jaguars early in the second when they stopped a Morris run on a fake punt attempt. After taking over at the Bills 44, the Jags scored on 4th-and-goal from the one via a Mark Brunell run. The Jags failed to cut into the lead on their next drive when Seth Marler's 48-yard FG was no good. Two plays later, Bledsoe connected on a 54-yard pass with former Jags WR Bobby Shaw that put Buffalo up 21-7 at the half.

Marler's 44-yard FG on the first drive of the second half made it 21-10 before Bledsoe beat the Jags secondary again, this time on a 36-yard TD toss to Eric Moulds, who would finish with 7 catches for 133 yards. Later in the third, a Jaguars punt backed the Bills up to their own one but the offense moved right down the field (helped by a 42-yard interference penalty) and Henry scored his third rushing TD of the game on a 4-yard jaunt. Concession came early in the fourth as Buffalo's 25-point lead meant the end of the starting units. After that, the Bills added a FG and the Jags tacked on a late TD.

GAME 3: DOLPHINS 17, BILLS 7

September 21, 2003 – Pro Player Stadium – (73,458)

The Bills suffered their first defeat of 2003 by dropping a 10-point decision at Miami in a nationally televised Sunday night game. The Dolphins enjoyed a decided advantage in most statistical categories, including a 23-8 edge in first downs, 166-41 in rushing yards, and 313-118 in total offensive yards. Still, the outcome was not decided until the final minutes thanks to a valiant effort by the Buffalo defense that continued to answer the bell throughout the game.

On the first drive of the game, CB Nate Clements intercepted Jay Fiedler at the Bills 9. Later in the quarter, the Dolphins reciprocated when Sammy Knight picked off a Drew Bledsoe pass setting Miami up at the Buffalo 48. Miami failed to capitalize, however, as Olindo Mare's 51-yard FG was wide left. In the scoreless game, things appeared to swing in Buffalo's favor on the first play of the second quarter when CB Antoine Winfield forced a Ricky Williams fumble that Takeo Spikes scooped up and returned 29 yards to the Miami 16. The scoring threat ended two plays later, though, as Travis Henry attempted a halfback pass that Patrick Surtain intercepted at the Miami 1-yard line. After sending Miami three-and-out, the Bills took over at the Dolphins' 39 and had another prime scoring chance when they advanced to the Miami 8 but Bledsoe was picked off in the end zone by Brock Marion at the 8:52 mark of the second. The deadlock was finally broken late in the half when Fiedler found Chris Chambers on a 12-yard scoring play with :25 left in the second quarter.

On its first possession of the second half, Miami moved 85 yards in 14 plays before upping its lead to 10-0 on a 26-yard Mare FG. Miami maintained the 10-point lead into the fourth before Clements recorded his second INT of the day and returned it 54 yards for a TD that cut the deficit to 10-7. Miami advanced to the Buffalo 26 on the ensuing drive but failed to pad its lead when Mare's 44-yarder was wide right. The Bills were unable to mount a scoring threat and the Dolphins put the game away with a 51-yard drive that ended with Williams' 1-yard TD run just after the two-minute warning.

The loss dropped the Bills to 2-1 and put them in a three-way tie with Miami and New England for the AFC East lead.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 4: EAGLES 23, BILLS 13

September 28, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (73,305)

The Bills fell to 2-2 with a 10-point home loss to the Eagles. Philadelphia dominated much of the first half and took a 16-0 lead into the fourth quarter. The Bills then rallied with a pair of touchdowns that narrowed the deficit to 16-13 with 2:49 to play but a key third down conversion on Philly's next drive was followed by a 62-yard run from RB Brian Westbrook that broke the game open.

The Eagles jumped out early by taking the opening kickoff and moving 71 yards in 8 plays capping the drive with a 2-yard Correll Buckhalter run. After a three-and-out by Buffalo, they embarked upon another long drive that chewed 8:36 off the clock and ended with a 26-yard David Akers FG. The Bills next drive reached the Philadelphia 33 but ended on a missed 51-yard FG. They reached the Eagles 23 on their next offensive series before a Bobby Shaw fumble was recovered and returned to midfield with 1:42 remaining in the half. The Eagles then moved to the Buffalo 16 to set-up a 34-yard Akers FG just before intermission.

Late in the third quarter, Akers' third straight FG – a 22-yarder – ended a 14-play drive and put Philly up 16-0 heading into the final stanza. Playing without #1 RB Travis Henry (rib) and trailing most of the game, the Bills were forced to the air often and in the fourth quarter were able to move the ball with success. They got on the scoreboard for the first time with 9:12 to play Drew Bledsoe's 3-yard pass to Shaw on 4th-and-goal but the two-point try was unsuccessful. A three-and-out forced by the Buffalo defense gave the offense another shot and they took advantage by moving 69 yards in 12 plays and ending the drive with a 1-yard Bledsoe scoring plunge on another 4th down play with 2:49 left. After a Rian Lindell touchback on the kickoff, the Eagles faced a 3rd-and-7 from the Buffalo 23 but converted with a 14-yard completion to James Thrash. One play later, Westbrook sealed the win with his 62-yard run.

GAME 5: BILLS 22 , BENGALS 16 (OT)

October 5, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (72,615)

After two straight losses, the Bills moved to 3-2 with a come-from-behind overtime victory over the visiting Bengals. On a blustery day in Orchard Park, the Bills scored the game's only points into the wind when Rian Lindell's 29-yard FG tied the game with 28 seconds left, capping a drive that included several game-saving plays. The Bengals got the ball first in OT but were sent three-and-out. A pair of passes then moved Buffalo deep into Bengal territory and the game's hero, Travis Henry ran it in from 2 yards to win it. Playing through the pain of a rib injury that kept him out the week before, Henry rushed for 85 yards on 25 carries and scored both of the team's TDs – a 9-yard catch and the OT run.

Neither team mounted much offense in the first half and all the scoring came on FGs with the wind. Lindell nailed a 27-yarder late in the first before Cincy's Shayne Graham answered with 39 and 37-yards in the second. Graham's 54-yard attempt on the final play of the first half just missed and the Bengals led 6-3 at halftime.

The Bills got the ball first in the second half and quickly tied the game on a 38-yarder by Lindell. Later in the quarter, LB London Fletcher tipped a Jon Kitna pass that DE Aaron Schobel intercepted and returned to the Bengal 35. Four straight Henry runs gained 26 yards and were followed by a Drew Bledsoe TD toss to Henry out of the backfield that put Buffalo up 13-6. Early in the fourth, a roughing the punter call against the Bills extended a Bengals drive that ended with Rudi Johnson's 16-yard game-tying TD run. A three-and-out by Buffalo into the wind and subsequent punt return to the Bills 20 set up a 30-yard Graham FG that made it 16-13. The Bills then took over at their own 30 with 5:33 to go. On a key 3rd-and-11 play, WR Bobby Shaw tip-toed the sideline on a 14-yard catch to keep the drive alive. Then on 4th-and-3 at the Cincy 39, Bledsoe found Eric Moulds in the flat and he gained 19 yards to the 20 to set-up Lindell's FG. Cincy won the OT coin toss and elected to receive but a Lindell touchback forced them to start at their own 20 and they could not gain a first down. After a punt, Buffalo took over at their own 43 and Bledsoe passes to TE Mark Campbell (20 yards) and Moulds (28) set them up inside the Cincy five and led to Henry's game-winning run.

GAME 6: JETS 30, BILLS 3

October 12, 2003 – Giants Stadium – (77,740)

The Bills fell to 3-3 on the season with a 30-3 loss to the Jets at the Meadowlands. Playing without starting wide receiver Eric Moulds (groin) and starting defensive tackle Sam Adams (ankle), Buffalo took an early 3-0 lead before the Jets scored 30 unanswered points en route to their first win of the season.

After the Jets went three-and-out on the game's first drive, the Bills marched to the Jets 25 before settling for a 44-yard Rian Lindell field goal that put Buffalo up 3-0. The Bills forced another Jets punt on the next drive and advanced to the NY 34 before turning it over on downs when they were stopped on fourth and 1. The Jets got on the board early in the second on a 1-yard Vinny Testaverde pass to TE Anthony Becht. A mishandled snap out of the shotgun on Buffalo's next drive resulted in a fumble that the Jets recovered at the Bills 17. The Buffalo defense refused to allow a first down forcing NY to settle for a 27-yard Doug Brien FG. On NY's next drive, Brien kicked a 33-yarder just before halftime that put the Jets up 13-3.

Trailing by 10, the Bills got the ball first in the third quarter but went three-and-out and NY's Santana Moss returned the subsequent punt 47 yards to the Buffalo 18. On the very next play, Testaverde connected with Becht on an 18-yard scoring pass that made it 20-3. Testaverde then threw his third TD pass of the day on NY's next possession with a 4-yard toss to Moss. The score was the fifth in as many drives for the Jets on their way to building a 27-3 lead. Brien's fourth FG of the game accounted for the only points scored in the fourth and provided the final margin of victory.

The Jets sacked Drew Bledsoe a season-high seven times and enjoyed a 4-0 edge in turnovers (2 fumbles/2 INTs).

GAME 7: BILLS 24, REDSKINS 7

October 19, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (73,149)

The Bills rebounded from a disappointing stretch of games to turn in a dominating performance against the visiting Redskins. The 24-7 win improved the Bills record to 4-3. Buffalo enjoyed a 432-169 edge in total yards and out-gained Washington in rushing yards, 196-59. RB Travis Henry was outstanding and had a career-best 167 rushing yards on 31 attempts with 2 TDs while WR Josh Reed matched his career-high with 8 receptions for 109 yards and a score. Buffalo's defense also had an exceptional game. The 169 total yards allowed and 8 total first downs were the fewest allowed in almost four years.

Buffalo jumped out early as the team took the opening kickoff and marched deep into Redskin territory before a 20-yard Rian Lindell FG opened the scoring. A couple drives later, Henry found the end zone on a 4-yard run to put Buffalo up 10-0. Washington reached the Buffalo 1 on its next drive but a botched snap by Patrick Ramsey turned it over to the Bills.

After trailing 10-0 at the half, the 'Skins took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched right down the field, capping the drive as Ramsey connected with Rod Gardner on a 25-yard scoring pass on 3rd-and-14. The Bills came right back and moved down the field quickly on a 21-yard Henry run followed by 25-yard pass to TE Ryan Neufeld. That set-up a 10-yard Drew Bledsoe toss to Reed on a play-action pass. Early in the fourth, Henry scored his second TD of the game on a 14-yard run that broke the Redskins backs.

Bledsoe was solid for the Bills and was a perfect 9 for 9 for 109 yards on the team's three TD drives. He also moved into 12th on the NFL's passing yards list, passing Jim Kelly.

Redskins DE Bruce Smith returned to Orchard Park for the first time since leaving the Bills but failed to record a sack after entering the contest 1.5 shy of Reggie White's all-time sack record. Buffalo played without WR Eric Moulds who sat out for the second straight week with a groin injury.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 8: CHIEFS 38, BILLS 5

October 26, 2003 - Arrowhead Stadium - (78,689)

The Bills fell to 4-4 while Kansas City moved to 8-0 with a dominating performance in the nationally televised Sunday night game. The Chiefs capitalized on a 7-0 edge in the turnover battle and at one point in the first half scored four offensive touchdowns in five possessions.

The game began well for Buffalo as they sent the Chiefs three-and-out on their first offensive series before Pierson Prioleau blocked a Jason Baker punt out of the back of the end zone for a safety. After the Bills couldn't take advantage of the fine field position after the free kick, the Chiefs scored quickly when Dante Hall turned a short pass from Trent Green into a 67-yard TD. Trailing 7-2 late in the first quarter, Rian Lindell couldn't reduce the lead as his 49-yard field goal attempt was wide left. On the ensuing drive, KC marched right down the field and went up 14-2 on the first of Priest Holmes' three scoring runs on the night, this one a 4-yarder. A Josh Reed fumble turned it over on Buffalo's next drive and the Chiefs cashed in 8 plays later when Holmes scored on a 13-yard jaunt. Down 21-2 late in the second quarter, the Bills advanced to the KC 2-yard line but couldn't punch it in and had to settle for a 20-yard Lindell FG with 2:56 to go before halftime. That proved to be enough time for the Chiefs to score again as Green completed 6 straight passes to move 67 yards on a drive that he would end with a 1-yard scoring pass to Tony Gonzalez that made it 28-5 at halftime.

The Bills could do little to cut into KC's advantage in the second half as five of their seven possessions ended in turnovers. The Chiefs padded the lead with a fourth quarter Holmes TD run and a Morten Andersen field goal. The loss diminished a fine rushing effort by Travis Henry who ran for 124 yards on 22 carries in his second straight 100-yard game.

GAME 9: COWBOYS 10, BILLS 6

November 9, 2003 – Texas Stadium – (63,770)

Two of the NFL's top defenses squared off in Dallas as the top-rated Cowboys met the third-ranked Bills and both sides lived up to their reputations. The teams combined to force 18 total punts and 11 three-and-out drives. The game's sole touchdown came when a Buffalo turnover at their own 24 gave the Cowboys a short field. Dallas' only other points came on a 51-yard FG. The two Cowboys scoring drives covered only 24 and 23 yards.

Dallas enjoyed good field position early but the Bills defense kept them off the scoreboard. Late in the first quarter, Drew Bledsoe fumbled on a sack and the Cowboys recovered at the Buffalo 24. Five plays later QB Quincy Carter found TE Dan Campbell on a 2-yard scoring pass. The Bills responded on their next possession with a 46-yard drive that culminated with a 41-yard FG. Just before halftime, the Bills had their most effective drive of the day as they moved 69 yards in nine plays. They reached the Dallas 11 before Rian Lindell's 29-yarder made it 7-6 just before halftime.

The Cowboys opened the second half with a 33-yard Derek Ross kickoff return to the Dallas 44. They advanced to the Buffalo 33 before Billy Cundiff hit a 51-yard field goal that put Dallas up 10-6. Leading by 4 with 6:30 to play in the third quarter, the Cowboys advanced to the Buffalo 29 where they opted to go for it on fourth-and-2 but an Antoine Winfield pass knockdown ended the drive. The Bills subsequently marched to the Dallas 25 but on a third-and-2 play, Bledsoe fumbled on a sack and the Cowboys recovered. The Bills would never threaten after that as they went three-and-out on four of the next five possessions and did not cross midfield.

The loss dropped the Bills to 4-5 for the year while the Cowboys improved to 7-2.

GAME 10: TEXANS 12, BILLS 10

November 16, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (72,677)

The Bills fell to 4-6 with a two-point home loss to the Texans. In what was largely a defensive battle, the Bills couldn't capitalize on opportunities when they had them and the Texans came up with just enough big plays to earn the win. Valiant in defeat was RB Travis Henry who had 149 rushing yards despite playing the second half with a cracked fibula.

Late in the first quarter, Buffalo downed a punt at the Houston 2 and two plays later ex-Texan Jeff Posey sacked David Carr forcing a fumble that rolled out of the end zone. Not only did a safety result on the play but Carr was knocked from the game with a shoulder injury and was replaced by Tony Banks. After the ensuing free kick, the Bills advanced to the Houston 11 but came away with no points when Rian Lindell missed a 29-yard FG try. The next Buffalo drive also advanced deep into Houston territory thanks largely to a 36-yard Drew Bledsoe-to-Bobby Shaw pass but Lindell's 44-yard try was wide left. Buffalo's defense continued to do the job on the Texans and when the Bills got the ball back Henry ripped off a 64-yard run that helped set-up a 23-yarder by Lindell. Houston got the ball back down 5-0 with 2:02 to go in the half and a short time later Andre Johnson & Banks hooked up on a 46-yard TD pass with 1:12 to play. The Texans led 6-5 at halftime after they failed on the surprise two-point try.

The Texans opened the second half with a 52-yard drive that ended when Kris Brown's 41-yard try ricocheted in off the right upright. Midway through the third, Buffalo took over at the Houston 20 following an Antoine Winfield interception and advanced to the 1 before settling for a 20-yard Lindell FG that made it 9-8. Another long Banks-to-Johnson pass (42 yards) moved Houston the Buffalo 9 and led to a 34-yard Brown FG that made it 12-8 with 3:28 to go. The Bills advanced to the Texans 31 at the two-minute warning but Bledsoe fumbled on a sack on the next play and Houston recovered. The Texans were able to run out the clock and finished that task when Johnson ran out of the end zone for an intentional safety on the game's last play.

GAME 11: COLTS 17, BILLS 14

November 23, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (73,004)

On an unseasonably warm afternoon in Orchard Park, the 4-6 Bills had the heat turned up on the 8-2 Colts for most of the game and led 14-3 early in the fourth. However, two Edgerrin James touchdown runs in the final quarter – including the game-winner on a fourth-down plunge from a foot away with 1:38 remaining – gave the visitors a 17-14 win.

After a scoreless first quarter, Indy broke the ice in the second. A suspect personal foul call on a Colts punt return set them up at the Indy 45 and a short time later a facemask penalty negated a James fumble that the Bills recovered. Indy eventually reached the Bills 6-yard line before Buffalo's D forced them to settle for a 24-yard Mike Vanderjagt FG. Buffalo's next drive appeared to be over after a three-and-out and the Bills in punt formation at their own 29. However, after bobbling the snap, punter Brian Moorman improvised and took off on a 21-yard gain to the Indy 35. The Bills advanced to the Indy 15 and faced a third-and-14 when Drew Bledsoe connected with Bobby Shaw on a 13-yard completion to the 1. Two plays later, Bledsoe plunged across the goal-line with 2:10 to go in the second quarter, giving Buffalo its first touchdown in three games. The hurry-up Colts offense marched swiftly downfield and reached the Buffalo 10 with :32 to go but Terrence McGee forced a James fumble that London Fletcher recovered to kill the drive.

Late in the third quarter and into the fourth, Buffalo mounted a 60-yard drive that included a 13-yard Henry run on fourth-and-2 and ended with a 7-yard Sammy Morris TD run on third-and-goal. The Colts answered by marching 61 yards in nine plays and pulled to within 14-9 after a 14-yard James scoring run and an unsuccessful two-point try. After forcing a Buffalo punt, Indy launched another long drive (16 plays, 83 yards) that included three key third down conversions. They reached the Buffalo 1-yard line just before the 2:00 warning and were stuffed twice by the Bills before James scored on fourth and inches. Buffalo moved near midfield on the next drive but a Colts interception with :40 left sealed the victory.

GAME 12: BILLS 24, GIANTS 7

November 30, 2003 – Giants Stadium – (78,481)

The Bills recorded their fifth win of the season with a convincing 24-7 road victory over the Giants. Buffalo's offense played a very efficient and turnover-free game while the defense once again performed at an extremely high level. It forced a total of nine NYG punts and sent the Giants three-and-out on 7 of 12 drives, including five straight in the second and third quarters. In the second half the Bills held a 22:30 to 7:30 advantage in time of possession and led 39:07 to 20:53 overall. They held the Giants to just 10 total first downs and just one on the ground.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bills went up 7-0 on the first play of the second quarter when Drew Bledsoe hit TE Dave Moore on a 24-yard scoring strike. The Giants knotted the game on the very next play from scrimmage after Kerry Collins and Amani Toomer connected on a 77-yard touchdown play. Buffalo re-gained the lead on the next series when Rian Lindell capped a 10-play, 65-yard drive with a 26-yard FG. New York's ensuing drive ended on a Collins fumble that Bills DE Aaron Schobel recovered at the NYG 41. The Bills capitalized a short time later when WR Bobby Shaw scored on a 22-yard pass from Bledsoe that gave the Bills a 17-7 lead. Bledsoe played a huge part of it as he completed 13 of 17 passes for 179 yards and a pair of TDs as the Bills scored on three straight possessions.

Midway through the third quarter, DT Keith Hamilton was flagged for a helmet-to-helmet hit on Bledsoe. Though dazed by the hit, Bledsoe continued to lead the Bills downfield with completions of 21 and 18 yards that led to a 13-yard Travis Henry touchdown run. On the next drive, Alex Van Pelt took over at QB for Bledsoe who exited after completing 19 of 29 passes for 252 yards and two TDs in less than three quarters of action. Henry chewed up the ground yardage and finished with 113 yards on 26 carries for his fourth 100-yard outing in the last six games. The Bills finished the game with a season-high six sacks of Collins, including a career-best three from Schobel.

GAME 13: BILLS 17, JETS 6

December 7, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (72,791)

The Bills won their second straight game and improved to 6-7 for the season with a 17-6 home win over the Jets on a chilly day in Orchard Park. In a very complete effort, the Buffalo defense held the Jets to just two field goals while Bills RB Travis Henry rushed 32 times for a career-best 169 yards (5.3 average) and a TD. For the first time with Chad Pennington at starting QB, the Jets failed to find the end zone and were held to 215 total yards.

The game opened with the Jets taking the opening kickoff and moving to the Buffalo 18 before settling for a 38-yard Doug Brien field goal that capped a 17-play, 67-yard drive that chewed up 9:37. The Bills came right back with a rather lengthy drive of their own, marching 71 yards in 13 plays and ending it with a 6-yard scoring pass from Drew Bledsoe to WR Josh Reed. After each team scored on its opening possession, neither would score again in the first half. The Bills defense harassed Pennington with four sacks in the first two quarters. The Jets had a chance to cut into the lead just before halftime when they reached the Buffalo 27 with :05 to play. Brien's FG from 45 yards out was good but a false start penalty backed him up five yards and that try was about a yard short.

On the opening possession of the second half, NYJ cornerback Ray Mickens picked off a Bledsoe pass and returned it to the Buffalo 35. However, the Bills D held New York without a first down and a Lawyer Milloy sack on third down pushed them out of FG range forcing a punt. On the next series, Henry ran 8 times for 52 yards and capped the 85-yard drive with a 4-yard TD rush. After a 40-yard Brien FG on the next Jet drive made it 14-6, the Bills continued to pound away as Henry ran 7 times for 46 yards and moved the team into position for a 32-yard Rian Lindell FG. The Jets would never threaten after that as one drive ended on downs and the final one was halted by rookie CB Terrence McGee's first career INT.

GAME 14: TITANS 28, BILLS 26

December 14, 2003 - The Coliseum - (68,809)

The Bills fell to 6-8 and were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a loss in Nashville. They did not go down without a fight, though, as they marched the length of the field in the final minute to score a TD but the game-tying two-point try was unsuccessful. Led by back-up QB Billy Volek, who started in place of Steve McNair, the Titans opened the scoring on their second series with a 29-yard Gary Anderson FG and led 6-0 after their next drive also ended with a FG (39). After failing to produce a first down on their first three drives, Buffalo's offense answered. A pair of long Travis Henry runs (15 & 19 yards) and a 28-yard interference penalty led to Rian Lindell's 27-yard FG that made it 6-3. A 35-yard punt return by Nate Clements later in the second set the Bills up at the Titans 26 and four plays later, Drew Bledsoe hit Bobby Shaw on a 6-yard TD pass that gave Buffalo a 10-6 lead.

Tennessee got the ball to open the second half but on the third play, LB Jeff Posey sacked Volek forcing a fumble that DT Pat Williams returned 28-yards for a

TD. Later in the quarter, Bledsoe fumbled on a sack and the Titans recovered at the Buffalo 18. Three plays later, Volek hit Erron Kinney on a 14-yard scoring pass that along with a two-point conversion made it 17-13. Tennessee went up 21-17 on their next drive with another Volek TD pass. The TD play was preceded by a controversial 32-yard completion to the Buffalo 2. The official closest to the play ruled an incompletion but one further away overruled and the play withstood a replay challenge when no angle provided enough evidence for beleaguered referee Tom White. Buffalo pulled to within 21-20 on a 32-yard Lindell FG with 7:09 to play but the Titans made it an 8-point game with a TD on the next drive. The Bills last chance came when they took over at their own 19 with 2:24 to play and no timeouts. A 33-yard pass to Shaw on 4th-and-2 was key and with 0:24 left, TE Mark Campbell made a diving TD grab. On the game-tying 2-point try, Shaw briefly made the catch but the ball came loose at the end to effectively end the Bills comeback chance.

GAME 15: DOLPHINS 20, BILLS 3

December 21, 2003 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (73,319)

In their final home game of the 2003 season, the Bills lost 20-3 to the Dolphins and fell to 6-9 on the year. The Bills defense held Miami to just 11 first downs, 37 net passing yards and 169 total yards but Buffalo's offense never got untracked and turned it over four times. Miami jumped out early and put seven points on the board on their fourth offensive play of the game when Chris Chambers scored on a 23-yard scoring pass from Jay Fiedler. Later in the first, a muffed punt by Nate Clements gave Miami the ball at the Buffalo 24 and that led to a 28-yard Olindo Mare field goal. Early in the second quarter, another Bills fumble gave Miami the ball in Buffalo territory and that led to another Mare FG, this one a 30-yarder. At halftime, the Dolphins held a 13-0 lead and had a 119 to 11 edge in total yards.

Early in the third quarter, momentum shifted Buffalo's way when DE Ryan Denney sacked Fiedler on the second play from scrimmage, forcing a fumble that DT Sam Adams recovered at the Miami 38. The Bills converted that into a 23-yard Rian Lindell FG that made it 13-3. After forcing a Miami punt, the next Bills drive reached the Miami 29 but on a third-and-6 play, Terrell Buckley intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass and returned it 74-yards for a TD that made the score 20-3. The 17-point lead would be more than enough as the Buffalo offense would never seriously threaten again.

During the game, the Bills honored long-time play-by-play man Van Miller who called his final home game at the end of a 37-year run with the team.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 16: PATRIOTS 31, BILLS 0

December 27, 2003 – Gillette Stadium – (68,436)

The Bills closed the 2003 season with a Saturday afternoon game at New England. Buffalo opened the season with a 31-0 home win over the Pats but New England returned the favor in the finale with an identical shutout result. The victory was the 12th straight for New England while the Bills fell to 6-10 with the defeat.

The game was hardly ever in doubt as New England took the opening kickoff and marched 62 yards on a drive that ended with a 1-yard Tom Brady pass to Daniel Graham. The Pats would produce touchdowns on four of their first six drives as Brady tossed scoring passes to four different receivers. In that same stretch, the Bills offense could do little to get untracked. Its first series ended when LB Mike Vrabel intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass and he returned it 14 yards to the Buffalo 34 that led to a 9-yard Brady-to-Bethel Johnson TD pass shortly thereafter. Down 14-0, the Bills got a break later in the first when LB Jeff Posey sacked Brady, forcing a fumble that LB Takeo Spikes recovered at the NE 29. The Bills offense though could not muster a first down and wound up turning it over on downs. A 19-yard Brady pass to Troy Brown early in the second made it 21-0. Later in the quarter, the Bills reached the NE 15-yard line but came up pointless when Rian Lindell's 40-yard FG try missed wide left. From there, the Pats made it 28-0 on the next series with a 10-yard scoring pass from Brady to David Givens. In addition to a 28-0 halftime lead, the Patriots had an equally one-sided statistical advantage with a 20-5 edge in first downs, 201-82 in total yards and 132-40 in passing yards.

The only other points scored came via a 24-yard Adam Vinatieri FG early in the fourth that allowed the Pats to reverse the season-opening score. The Bills penetrated the NE red zone later in the quarter but a Travis Henry fumble turned it over at the Patriot 10. Buffalo also reached the NE 1-yard line in the game's final minute but back-up QB Travis Brown was intercepted in the end zone by LB Larry Izzo with 0:13 left.

The game also marked the end of an era as Bills play-by-play man Van Miller concluded his 37-year run with the team.

BILLS ALL ACCESS

Bills All Access presented by Tops Markets returns for its third season this fall. Hosts Steve Tasker and Jennifer Mucha will take fans on a full feature run of behind the scenes player excitement. From the Jim Kelly Celebrity Golf Tournament to the Shores of Honolulu we'll bring fans the activities away from the game. This season on All Access fans will get the opportunity to meet some of the newest Buffalo Bills as well as catch up with a few Bills legends.

Bills All Access begins Opening Weekend in both Buffalo and Rochester. Fans can catch it in Buffalo on WKBW-TV, Sundays at 11:30 a.m. and in Rochester on WOKR-TV Saturday nights at 11:30 p.m.

THE COMEBACK VS. HOUSTON

After consecutive Super Bowl appearances following the 1990 and '91 seasons, the Bills finished 11-5 in 1992, but lost the division title to Miami on the conference-record tiebreaker. As a result, their journey back to the Super Bowl would have to begin on January 3, 1993 with a home game vs. the Houston Oilers.

The Bills got off to a slow start as the Houston offense enjoyed a 21:12 time of possession edge in the game's first 30 minutes. Houston averaged 7.3 yards per offensive play behind quarterback Warren Moon's 19 of 22 passing for 218 yards and four touchdowns -- a 147.5 passer rating. At halftime, the Bills trailed the Oilers 28-3.

The second half start was no better. Fewer than two minutes into the third quarter, the Bills yielded a 58-yard interception-return touchdown and fell behind 35-3. However, with 13:15 remaining in the third quarter, the Bills embarked on the greatest comeback in NFL history, which in 1999 was chosen by fans as the Fifth Most Memorable NFL Game of the Century in voting on nfl.com.

HERE'S HOW IT HAPPENED:

- // After allowing the INT-return touchdown, the Bills drove 50 yards in 10 plays on their next possession, capping the drive on a Kenneth Davis' one-yard touchdown run. Houston 35, Buffalo 10.
- // Bills kicker Steve Christie then recovered his own onside kick. Four plays later, Bills quarterback Frank Reich, starting for an injured Jim Kelly, connected with Don Beebe on a 38-yard touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 17.
- // The Bills' defense produced a three-and-out on the ensuing Houston possession and Buffalo took over on its own 41-yard line. Five plays later, Reich hit Andre Reed for a 26-yard touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 24.
- // Two plays into the Oilers' next drive, Bills safety Henry Jones intercepted a deflected Moon pass and returned it 15 yards to the Houston 23-yard line. The Bills gained five yards on three plays and faced a fourth-and-five. Time out, Buffalo. Reich convinced Levy to go for it on fourth down. He then saw Reed break away from the safety and hit him on the goal line for 18 yards and a touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 31. In a span of six minutes and 52 seconds, the Bills had cut their deficit from 32 points to four.
- // After the teams traded punts, Moon led the Oilers on a 76-yard drive early in the fourth quarter over seven-and-a-half minutes. Houston then caught a break. A Buffalo interception was wiped out by a penalty called on the Bills' for a late-hit foul against Moon.
- // The Oilers reached the Buffalo 14-yard line and set up for a field goal. It was then that the Bills received some help from above - it started raining. Montgomery fumbled the snap and kicker Al Del Greco recovered but the Oilers had turned the ball over on downs.
- // Buffalo then drove 74 yards in seven plays into the wind, taking the lead on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Reich to Reed - the duo's third scoring connection in little more than 16 minutes. Buffalo 38, Houston 35.
- // Moon then led Houston 63 yards in 12 plays, setting up the game-tying 26-yard Del Greco field goal with 12 seconds remaining.
- // The game went to overtime and the Oilers won the coin flip but after two completions for seven yards, Moon faced a third-and-three from the Houston 27. It was then that Bills safety Nate Odomes stepped in front of a Moon pass at the 37 and returned the INT to the 35. The Bills gained 15 more yards on a penalty when Odomes was grabbed by his facemask.
- // After two Davis rushes for six yards, Christie kicked a 32-yard field goal 3:06 into overtime. Buffalo 41, Houston 38.

In addition to keeping their Super Bowl hopes alive (the Bills would win their next two on the road to make that third consecutive appearance), Buffalo set an NFL record. Their 32-point comeback victory remains the largest in NFL history.

HISTORY

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators, and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

In 2004, the Bills will honor guard Jim Ritcher by making him the newest addition to the Wall. Ritcher will become the 21st member of the elite group in an event that will take place when the Bills host St. Louis (11/21/04).

BUFFALO BILLS RADIO NETWORK

Citadel Communications and its network of 23 stations will be broadcasting Buffalo Bills football for the seventh straight season in 2004. WGRF-FM (96.9, -97 Rock) serves as the flagship station for the Bills in 2004 with former color analyst John Murphy handling the play-by-play duties and the color commentary coming from retired Bills quarterback Alex Van Pelt.

Murphy enters his first season as the Bills play-by-play man after legend Van Miller gave up the reigns following 37 wonderful seasons with the Bills. After 16 years as the color analyst for the Bills, Murphy will take over the play-by-play reigns for the 2004 season. In addition to his post in the radio booth, the Syracuse University graduate and Lockport native serves as sports director at WKBW-TV (Ch. 7) in Buffalo.

Teamed with Murphy is retired Bills quarterback Alex Van Pelt who enters the newest phase of his career as the Bills color analyst. "What I like about being a color analyst is that I will have the opportunity to explain football to the fans," Van Pelt said. "It is going to be fun to help the listeners learn new things and follow the football game."

THE MIKE MULARKEY SHOW

The Mike Mularkey Show debuts this fall as part of Bills Television Network Productions. Hosted by new Bills play by play man John Murphy, The Mike Mularkey Show promises to give fans an inside look at Buffalo Bills Football. "I think fans are really going to enjoy this show," said John Murphy. "Coach Mularkey is a long-time football guy who really understands the game. I think Bills fans will be eager to see his analysis before and after each game."

"For me this is a new opportunity and I'm excited about it," said new Bills Head Coach Mike Mularkey. "I have only been here a short time, but it's been obvious to me and the rest of our coaching staff that the fans both appreciate and personify the tradition of Buffalo Bills Football."

The Mike Mularkey Show debuts this fall across Western New York on the ABC affiliates of Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse. In Buffalo the show airs Sundays beginning September 12th at 11:00 a.m. on WKBW-TV. In Rochester and Syracuse fans can tune in Saturday Nights at 7:30 p.m. beginning September 11th on WOKR-TV and WIXT-TV respectively.

AFL EASTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF

December 28, 1963

War Memorial Stadium - (33,044)

Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of TDs and Gino Cappelletti kicked 4 FGs to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just 7 yards rushing and intercepted 4 Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's 1st postseason playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the 1st half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard KO return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard FG attempt fell short. In the 2nd half, Buffalo scored 1st on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the 3rd quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard drive capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

BILLS 20, CHARGERS 7*AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

December 26, 1964

War Memorial Stadium - (40,242)

Buffalo made its first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over San Diego. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just 4 plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Chargers' 2nd possession, the Bills' Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego RB Keith Lincoln, putting the Chargers starter out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complemented the varied Bills' passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak FGs and a 4-yard run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yard pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the 3rd quarter that finished the scoring.

GAME NOTES

- Bills' LB Mike Stratton had a standout performance recording an INT and "The Hit Heard Around the World." With 8:19 left in the first quarter, Stratton nailed San Diego RB Keith Lincoln with a hit which put Lincoln out of the game. "The Hit," which broke one of Lincoln's ribs, was considered the turning point in the game.
- Two ex-Chargers came back to haunt their former team. QB Jack Kemp, picked up off waivers from San Diego for $100, fueled the Bills offense past the Chargers. The other Charger cast off, P Paul Maguire, launched a 64-yard punt and killed the Chargers last attempt for a comeback. Maguire's punt was the longest in Bills playoff history.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

December 26, 1965

Balboa Stadium - (30,361)

For the second straight year, the Bills defeated the Chargers to win the AFL Championship. In 8 quarters of championship play, the Chargers managed just 7 points against Buffalo. After an uneventful 1st quarter, Jack Kemp, voted the game's MVP, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard TD pass to open the scoring and 3 minutes later the Bills' Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills' defense as they continually thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak FGs in the 2nd half added icing to the Bills' championship cake.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

January 1, 1967

War Memorial Stadium - (42,080)

Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo, 31-7. The Chiefs' defense forced four Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to nine first downs and 40 yards rushing. The Chiefs grabbed an early 7-0 lead, after Buffalo fumbled the opening kickoff. The Bills countered with a 69-yard bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dubenion to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yard TD pass in the 2nd quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson INT and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yard FG with three seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yard line in the 2nd half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

A 4-TD explosion in the 2nd quarter propelled Pittsburgh to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's 1st postseason appearance in 8 years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard TD pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. But Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the 2nd quarter, completing 7 of 8 passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored 3 times from inside the 5-yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the 2nd half, Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

San Diego Stadium - (48,321)

In dramatic fashion, San Diego rallied from a 14-3 deficit as QB Dan Fouts connected with WR Ron Smith on a 50-yard scoring pass with just 2:08 remaining in the game. The reception was only the 5th of the season for Smith. Playing courageously on a badly sprained left ankle, QB Joe Ferguson tried to direct a last ditch bid by the Bills. His efforts were thwarted, however, when a pass was picked off by a San Diego defender after Buffalo had reached midfield. Meeting for the 2nd time at San Diego within a 3-month span, the teams battled on even terms until the Chargers got a late 1st quarter FG. Then the Bills took command with two 2nd period scores. The 1st came on a 1-yard burst up the middle by Roosevelt Leaks. With only 16 seconds remaining in the half, Ferguson connected with WR Frank Lewis on a 9-yard scoring play, upping the Bills' margin to 14-3. San Diego countered with a 3rd quarter TD and 4th period FG before the late heroics by Fouts and Smith.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

December 27, 1981

Shea Stadium - (57,050)

In a Wild Card game that lived up to its name, the Buffalo Bills stormed to a 24-0 lead but needed a last-second INT by Bill Simpson to preserve their 1st postseason victory since 1965. Charles Romeos got the visitors off and winning by picking up Bruce Harper's fumble on the opening KO and returned it 26 yards for a TD. The play took 16 seconds and was the 2nd fastest score in NFL playoff history. TD passes of 50 and 26 yards to Frank Lewis, were sandwiched around a 29-yard Nick Mick-Mayer FG to put the Bills up by 24-0. The Jets hung up 10 points before halftime and trailed 24-13 after Pat Leahy's 19-yard FG in the 3rd quarter. Joe Cribbs, staked the Bills to a 31-13 lead with his 45-yard scoring run 5 minutes deep into the final period. The Jets, however, refused to die. Richard Todd moved them 80 yards in 8 plays, hitting Bobby Jones with a 30-yard TD toss. After Buffalo failed to move on their next possession, Todd got the Jets within four with the aid of an interference call against Mario Clark that wiped out an apparent INT, in a 58-yard march that ended on a 1-yard plunge by Kevin Long. Buffalo could not generate a 1st down and turned the ball back to New York at the Jets' 20 with 2:36 remaining. Todd passed the Jets downfield, reaching the Buffalo 11 with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson stepped in front of his 2nd-and-10 try for Derrick Gaffney in the end zone to intercept at the Buffalo one to seal the Jets' doom.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 3, 1982

Riverfront Stadium - (55,420)

Cincinnati jumped out to a 14-0 1st quarter lead, after cashing in on a long punt return and an INT, and defeated Buffalo 28-21, to secure the 1st postseason victory in the history of the Bengals' franchise. The Bengals' Mike Fuller returned a Greg Cater punt 27 yards to start Cincinnati's 1st possession at the Buffalo 42. Charles Alexander capped a 7-play drive with his 4-yard scoring run. After Ken Riley intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass, the Bengals marched 48 yards in 8 plays and took a 14-0 advantage on Pete Johnson's 1-yard run. Buffalo breathed new life before halftime, as Ferguson hit Jerry Butler with a 54-yard pass to draw within 14-7 on Joe Cribbs' 1-yard run. Early in the 3rd quarter, the Bills evened the issue on a 44-yard scoring run by Cribbs, a play that would later prove costly as the Buffalo rushing leader injured a knee and played only one more down before retiring for the afternoon. The teams traded TDs, Cincinnati scoring on a 20-yard run by Alexander and Buffalo on a 21-yard pass from Ferguson to Butler, to make it 21-21 after 1 play of the 4th quarter. Bengal QB Ken Anderson put Cincinnati back in the driver's seat, 28-21, on a 16-yard scoring pass to Cris Collinsworth. Buffalo's last grasp reached the Bengal 20 late in the final stanza but a controversial delay-of-game penalty wiped out an apparent 3rd down conversion pass to Lou Piccone and Ferguson overthrew Roland Hooks in the end zone on 4th down.

Rich Stadium - (79,532)

Spurred on by 79,532 noisy fans, the Bills blocked a Houston punt and field goal, and forced a fumble on another punt late in the series, to advance to the AFC Championship game. Following Leonard Smith's block of a Greg Montgomery punt, the Bills scored on Robb Riddick's one-yard TD run. The Oilers answered with a 35-yard Tony Zendejas FG, following an 11-play, 71-yard drive to make the score 7-3 at the intermission. The Bills' defense stymied Houston in the 3rd quarter as Oilers' QB Warren Moon was unable to complete a pass in the period. Thurman Thomas, who earlier had a career-best 40-yard run, scored from 11 yards out following a 59-yard drive to give the Bills a 14-3 lead after 3 quarters. Scott Norwood nailed a 27-yard FG after Mark Kelso picked off a Moon pass and returned it 28 yards to put the Bills at the Houston 18. Mike Rozier capped an 80-yard Houston drive with a 1-yard scoring plunge with 5:12 remaining in the game. The Oilers forced Buffalo to punt with just under two minutes remaining, but Steve Tasker stripped the ball away from Curtis Duncan and Ray Bentley recovered at the Houston 18 allowing Buffalo to run out the clock and win the game.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

January 8, 1989

Riverfront Stadium - (59,747)

The Bills' season ended in Riverfront Stadium as Cincinnati dominated the Bills, 21-10, before a boisterous crowd. The Bills offense sputtered throughout the game, spent most of the second half pinned against its own goal line and failed to convert on any 3rd down opportunities in the game. Cincinnati scored first on a 1-yard TD run by Ickey Woods, following an Eric Thomas INT of a Jim Kelly pass. Buffalo answered quickly, as Kelly connected on all 4 of his passes in the following drive, finishing with a 9-yard scoring strike to Andre Reed and tying the game at 7-7. The Bills forced Cincinnati to punt and drove to the Bengals' 26-yard line, but Scott Norwood's 43-yard FG attempt sailed wide left. The Bengals took advantage of the break and scored on a Boomer Esiason 10-yard TD pass to James Brooks. The Bills pulled to within 4 at the half as Norwood connected on a 39-yard FG, following a 25 yard INT return by Mark Kelso. The second half belonged to Cincinnati as it held Buffalo to 2 first downs and forced the Bills to start all 5 of its drives inside the 23-yard line. The Bengals took advantage of a personal foul against Bills' DB Derrick Burroughs to set up Woods' second 1-yard TD. Buffalo launched one last drive, but it ended when David Fulcher picked off a 4th-down pass from Kelly in the end zone.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Cleveland Stadium - (77,706)

LB Clay Matthews intercepted a QB Jim Kelly 11-yard pass on the 1-yard line with 9 seconds left in the game to preserve the victory for the Browns. In dramatic style, Buffalo began a comeback bid after K Matt Bahr kicked a 47-yard FG to give Cleveland a 34-24 lead with 6:50 left in the fourth quarter. Kelly began a string of 23 consecutive pass plays and closed the gap to 4 when he hit RB Thurman Thomas for a 3-yard TD. Buffalo opened the scoring when WR Andre Reed split the secondary for a 72-yard TD pass in the first quarter. A 45-yard Bahr FG coupled with a 52-yard WR Webster Slaughter bomb gave Cleveland the lead at 10-7. The Bills returned the favor when WR James Lofton hauled in a Kelly pass for a 33-yard TD. TE Ron Middleton gave Cleveland the halftime lead on a 3-yard pass from QB Bernie Kosar. Slaughter scored again on a 44-yard toss from Kosar to extend the Browns' lead to 24-14 early on the third quarter. Thomas continued the seesaw battle with the first of his two TD receptions from Kelly on a 6-yard strike. But the Browns struck back quickly when KR Eric Metcalf took the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for the score. K Scott Norwood got the Bills within seven when he made a 30-yard attempt early in the final period.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Rich Stadium - (77,087)

Buffalo and Miami combined for a regulation-time NFL playoff record 78 points in a game dictated by inclement weather. QB Jim Kelly ran the no-huddle offense to a 13-3 first quarter lead in his first appearance since suffering a knee injury against the Giants on 12/15/90. Kelly hit WR Andre Reed on a 40-yard strike before Miami answered with a 49-yard Pete Stoyanovich FG. The next two Buffalo drives were capped off with FGs of 24 and 22 yards by K Scott Norwood. Buffalo and Miami then traded TDs in the second quarter snowfall when the Bills started the see-saw with a 5-yard TD scamper by RB Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, QB Dan Marino connected on a 64-yard TD aerial to WR Mark Duper. But Kelly answered with a 13-yard TD pass to WR James Lofton. Miami then got a break when P Reggie Roby recovered a fumble at the Bills 47 and 7 plays later, Marino bootlegged in from 2 yards. In a 3rd quarter kickers' dual, Stoyanovich split the uprights from 22 yards out before Norwood drew claim to his 3rd FG of the day with a 28-yard shot. Miami drew to within a FG, 30-27, when Marino hit guard eligible Roy Foster with a 2-yard TD pass. But the Bills added 14 points to their 4th quarter lead when Thomas put the finishing touch on a 63-yard drive by strolling in from the 5. Buffalo wasted no time getting the ball back when LB Hal Garner forced a fumble on the ensuing KO return. Just 2 plays later, Reed grabbed a 23-yard Kelly pass for the Bills final tally. The Dolphins made the final score 44-34 with an 8-yard Marino-to-WR Tony Martin TD pass.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Rich Stadium - (80,324)

The Bills won their first AFC Championship with one of the most dominating performances ever displayed in a title game. Buffalo set the tone for the day by driving 75 yards after the opening KO and scored the initial TD when QB Jim Kelly picked up a bad shotgun snap and scrambled to find WR James Lofton for a 13-yard pass. After Raiders K Jeff Jaeger cut the lead to 7-3, the Buffalo onslaught began. RB Thurman Thomas ran for a 12-yard TD before LB Darryl Talley returned an INT 27 yards to extend the early lead to 21-3. The Bills' no-huddle offense showcased its power by scoring 20 more points in the 2nd quarter on 2 TD runs by RB Kenneth Davis and an 8-yard TD pass from Kelly to Lofton. Buffalo posted an impressive 41-3 halftime advantage, establishing an NFL postseason record for most points in a first half. Davis added his 3rd TD in the 4th quarter, tying an NFL playoff record for the most TDs in a game, while K Scott Norwood hit a 39-yard FG to provide the final margin. Thomas rushed for a Bills playoff record 138 yards as Buffalo gained a total of 502 yards compared to L.A.'s 320.

SUPER BOWL XXV
Tampa Stadium - (73,813)

The Bills and Giants made the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl a historic one as the Giants narrowly edged the Bills, 20-19, in a battle later dubbed, "A Game for the Ages." Buffalo loyalists watched their hopes of a world championship sail wide right as K Scott Norwood's 47-yard FG attempt just missed its mark with only 4 seconds remaining. The Giants opened the evening's scoring on a 28-yard FG by K Matt Bahr before Buffalo answered with a 23-yarder by Norwood. The AFC Champions took their first lead of the game, 10-3, when RB Don Smith smashed in from the one. DE Bruce Smith then extended the lead by recording a rare Super Bowl safety when he sacked Giants' QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. After holding the Buffalo offense 2 consecutive series, the Giants regained momentum on an 87-yard drive that ended with a 14-yard TD strike from Hostetler to WR Stephen Baker just before the half ended. After receiving the 2nd half KO, the NFC Champions utilized their ball control offense and kept the Bills defense on the field for over 9 minutes on their way to a 76-yard scoring drive that culminated with RB Ottis Anderson bullying his way into the end zone from the one. New York took a 17-12 lead, but the NFL's number one scoring machine struck back quickly behind the running of Thurman Thomas, who broke a number of tackles en route to a 31-yard TD scamper. On the next possession, Giants' K Matt Bahr split the uprights from 21 yards out with, what proved to be, the final score of the game. After the Bills defense forced the Giants to punt one last time, QB Jim Kelly and the offense started the final drive on their own 10-yard line with 2:16 left on the clock. Eight plays, 61 yards and 2:08 later, the Bills FG unit became the focus of attention for football fans around the world.

Buffalo advanced to its second consecutive AFC Championship Game with a convincing, 37-14, win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Buffalo moved out to a 17-0 lead on the strength of two QB Jim Kelly-to-WR Andre Reed TD strikes and a K Scott Norwood 33-yard FG. The Bills extended their lead early in the second half when WR James Lofton hauled in a 10-yard pass from Kelly to set the score at 24-0. The Chiefs finally got on the scoreboard late in the third quarter as a LB Lonnie Marts interception set up a drive, which ended with a 3-yard TD run by RB Barry Word. Buffalo put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter with two Norwood field goals and a 5-yard TD run by RB Kenneth Davis. WR Fred Jones grabbed a 20-yard pass from QB Mark Vlasic to set the final score at 37-14. In the game, Kelly threw for 3 TDs and 3 INTs, while Mark Vlasic was intercepted 4 times in relief of an injured Steve DeBerg.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Led by a stingy defense, Buffalo returned to its second consecutive Super Bowl with a hard fought 10-7 win over the Denver Broncos. With the Buffalo offense in a dog-fight of their own, the Buffalo defense took the game into their own hands and registered the only Buffalo TD of the game. On 2nd down, deep in Denver territory, QB John Elway backed up to attempt a screen pass, reading the play, NT Jeff Wright ceased his charge and deflected the pass into the air. LB Carlton Bailey alertly grabbed the ball and returned it 11 yards for the game's first score. Buffalo moved out to a 10-0 lead after K Scott Norwood hit a 44-yard field goal mid-way through the fourth quarter. Denver then took control of the ball and marched 85 yards in 8 plays for a score, a 3-yard QB draw by Gary Kubiak. The Denver back-up quarterback took over after Elway left the game in the third quarter with a thigh bruise. The Broncos then recovered the ensuing onside kick, but on the next play from scrimmage, CB Kirby Jackson stripped RB Steve Sewell of the ball and scooped it up to halt the Denver comeback. On the day, Denver K David Treadwell missed three FGs, a 47-yarder wide left and two attempts, 42 and 37, both which hit the right upright.

Buffalo's hopes for a world championship were dashed for the second consecutive season with a 37-24 loss to the Washington Redskins. The red-hot Redskins dominated the Bills throughout the contest and built a 17-0 halftime lead. Washington then extended its lead to 24-0 on only the second play of the third quarter with a 2-yard run by Gerald Riggs. The score was set up by LB Kurt Gouveia's INT and return to the Buffalo 2-yard line. The Bills then mounted a comeback with a 21-yard field goal by K Scott Norwood and a 1-yard TD run by RB Thurman Thomas, but Washington put all of Buffalo's momentum aside by capturing the next three scores. Buffalo added two late TDs to set the final score at 37-24.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

Rich Stadium - (75,141)

Buffalo scored four TDs in under seven minutes in the third quarter, and rallied from a 35-3 deficit to down the Oilers 41-38, marking the greatest comeback in NFL history. Houston jumped out to a 28-3 halftime lead on four QB Warren Moon TD passes. Moon, who played a virtually flawless half, completed 19 of 22 passes for 218 yards and 0 INTs. Buffalo's lone points of the half came on a first quarter K Steve Christie 36-yard FG. Houston made it 35-3 on the Bills' opening drive of the second half when SS Bubba McDowell intercepted a QB Frank Reich pass and raced 58 yards for the score. The Bills' amazing comeback began when RB Kenneth Davis scored from one yard out, and Christie recovered the ensuing onside kick at the Buffalo 48. Four plays later, Reich found WR Don Beebe on a 38-yard TD pass. The Bills' scoring flurry continued on their next possession when Reich hit WR Andre Reed with a 26-yard TD pass to pull Buffalo within 11, 35-24. On the first play of Houston's next possession, S Henry Jones picked off a Moon pass and returned it 15 yards to the Houston 23. On a 4th and 5 play from the 18 yard line, Reich found Reed once again in the endzone to make the score 35-31, Houston. The Bills took their first lead when Reich connected with Reed for the third time, this time from 17 yards out, to put Buffalo on top 38-35 with 3:08 left in regulation play. After a 12-play, 63-yard drive, Del Greco hit a 26-yard FG to send the contest into OT. After winning the toss, Houston gave the ball back to the Bills when DB Nate Odomes picked off a Moon pass. Three plays later, Christie kicked the 32-yard game winner to give Buffalo the dramatic 41-38 victory, sending the team to the second round of the AFC Playoffs.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 9, 1993

Three Rivers Stadium - (60,407)

Buffalo took advantage of three Pittsburgh turnovers, and sacked QB Neil O'Donnell seven times en route to a 24-3 victory, earning the Bills their third consecutive trip to the AFC Championship Game. Pittsburgh's only points came on its first possession when K Gary Anderson connected on a 38-yard FG. Buffalo set the halftime score at 7-3 when QB Frank Reich hit OL Mitch Frerotte out of the backfield on a one-yard TD pass. The score was set up when DE Bruce Smith sacked O'Donnell, forcing a fumble which was recovered by DE Phil Hansen on the Buffalo 41. On the Bills' first possession of the half, Buffalo marched 80 yards in 13 plays, capped off by a 17-yard scoring strike from Reich to WR James Lofton to make the score 14-3, Buffalo. After a botched FG attempt by Pittsburgh, Buffalo drove 44-yards, setting up a K Steve Christie 43-yard FG. The Bills put the game away on their next possession, putting together an 86-yard drive that ended with a FB Carwell Gardner one-yard run to set the final score, 24-3. RB Kenneth Davis rushed 10 times for 107 yards, while WR Don Beebe grabbed seven passes for 72 yards to compliment Reich's 16-23 passing performance. LB Darryl Talley recorded seven tackles and a sack, and NT Jeff Wright and DE Keith Willis had two sacks a piece to lead the Buffalo defensive effort.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Joe Robbie Stadium - (72,703)

Bills' K Steve Christie connected on five FGs, and QB Jim Kelly returned to the lineup to lead Buffalo to a 29-10 victory over Miami, and a berth in a third straight Super Bowl. The Bills got on the board first on a Christie 21-yard FG. The score was set up when DE Bruce Smith sacked Miami QB Dan Marino, forcing a fumble which LB Darryl Talley recovered. Dolphins' K Pete Stoyanovich knotted the score at 3-3 with a 51-yard FG to close out the first quarter scoring. Buffalo came right back, driving 64 yards on seven plays, capped off by a 17-yard TD pass from Kelly to RB Thurman Thomas. On the Dolphins next possession, Bills' DE Phil Hansen intercepted Marino on the Miami 24 yard line, setting up a 33-yard Christie FG to give the Bills a 13-3 halftime lead. On the second half kickoff, Buffalo DE Mark Pike stripped the ball from Mike Williams, and FB Carwell Gardner recovered on the Miami 24. Five plays later, RB Kenneth Davis scored on a two-yard run to put Buffalo on top, 20-3. Christie added another FG in the third quarter, and two more in the fourth to tie an NFL playoff record. Miami's only points of the half came on a 15-yard TD pass from Marino to WR Mark Duper. Kelly completed 17 of 24 passes for 177 yards and a TD, including a perfect seven of seven in the second half. RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis combined for 157 rushing yards and 122 yards receiving as the Bills rolled to their third consecutive AFC Championship.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

COWBOYS 52, BILLS 17

SUPER BOWL XXVII

Rose Bowl - (98,374)

Buffalo led 7-0, on a 2-yard TD run by RB Thurman Thomas five minutes into the game, until the first two of their record nine turnovers helped the Cowboys take the lead for good late in the opening quarter. First, Dallas safety James Washington intercepted a Jim Kelly pass and returned it 13 yards to the Bills' 47, setting up QB Troy Aikman's 2-yard TD pass to TE Jay Novacek with 1:36 remaining in the period. On the next play from scrimmage, Kelly was sacked by Charles Haley and fumbled at the Bills' two-yard line where the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones picked up the loose ball and ran two yards for a TD. Dallas, which recovered five fumbles and intercepted four passes, struck just as quickly late in the first half, when Aikman tossed 19- and 18-yard TD passes to Michael Irvin 15 seconds apart to give the Cowboys a 28-10 lead at intermission. Buffalo scored for the last time when backup quarterback Frank Reich, playing because Kelly was injured while attempting to pass midway through the second quarter, threw a 40-yard TD pass to Don Beebe on the final play of the third period to trim the deficit to 31-17. But Dallas put the game out of reach by scoring three times in a span of 2:33 of the fourth quarter. In one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl lore, Cowboys DL Leon Lett returned a Reich fumble 64 yards to the Buffalo one-foot line before Beebe, who raced the length of the field, knocked the ball from his hand.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

January 15, 1994

Rich Stadium - (61,923)

The Bills trailed, 17-6, late in the first half and, 23-22, late in the third quarter before QB Jim Kelly capped perhaps the most brilliant performance of his career with a 22-yard TD pass to WR Bill Brooks, his second of the game for the winning points 2:55 into the fourth quarter. The Bills overcame the losses of their leading receiver and best run-blocker, TE Pete Metzelaars, who left the game late in the third quarter with a dislocated finger, and RB Thurman Thomas, who left early in the fourth with a mild concussion. After a scoreless first quarter, the Raiders struck first with a K Jeff Jaeger 30-yard FG. Each team traded a pair of rushing TDs as Bills RB Kenneth Davis plunged in from 1 yard out and Thomas scored on an 8-yard run. Raiders RB Napoleon McCallum added two 1-yard TD runs in between Buffalo's two scores to give them a 17-13 lead at the intermission. Buffalo's defense was as effective as its offense in the final two quarters, as the Bills took control of the game in the second half by outscoring the Raiders, 16-6, and picking up 18 first downs to L.A.'s one, which came on a touchdown.

- The two TDs by Bill Brooks were the first of his career in the postseason.
- Bills improved to 7-0 at Rich Stadium in postseason play.
- The 30 points scored in the second quarter (L.A. 17, Buffalo 13) established a new Buffalo record for that stanza. The old record, 28 (Buffalo 14, Miami 14), was established 1/12/91 in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Rich Stadium - (76,642)

The Buffalo Bills made history by becoming the only team ever to reach four consecutive Super Bowls with a solid, 30-13, victory over the Chiefs in the AFC Championship game. RB Thurman Thomas set a franchise record with 189 rushing yards on 33 carries and a club-record three TDs. After the teams traded punts twice, the Bills finally got on the board midway through the first quarter with Thomas' 12-yard TD up the middle. Chiefs QB Joe Montana then led the Chiefs on a 10-play, 51-yard drive all the way to the Buffalo 13. The Chiefs, however, had to settle for a 31-yard FG. The Chiefs added a second 31-yard FG less than two minutes later after Bills KR Russell Copeland fumbled the ensuing kickoff. Thomas' second TD and two K Steve Christie FGs helped stake the Bills to a 20-6 halftime lead. RB Marcus Allen brought the Chiefs to within a touchdown late in the third quarter with a 1-yard TD run, but Christie and Thomas combined for another 10 points to close the scoring at 30-13 and send the Bills to Atlanta.

SUPER BOWL XXVIII

Georgia Dome - (72,817)

KR Kevin Williams returned the opening kickoff 50 yards, however, Dallas had to settle with a 41-yard K Eddie Murray FG. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie tied the game less than three minutes later with a Super Bowl record 54-yard FG. On the Bills' first play of their next possession, RB Thurman Thomas fumbled a shovel pass from QB Jim Kelly at midfield. Once again, but the Cowboys had to settle for a FG. The Bills then responded with a 17-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 4-yard TD run by Thomas to go ahead, 10-6. The drive had come to a halt when the Bills had a fourth-and-three, however, Dallas was penalized five yards for running into P Chris Mohr. CB Nate Odomes intercepted a QB Troy Aikman pass with a little over a minute remaining in the first half, and the Bills took advantage by converting on another Christie FG as time expired, giving Buffalo a 13-6 halftime lead. Less than a minute into the third quarter, momentum swung in the Cowboys' direction when Thomas fumbled and reserve safety James Washington returned the ball 46 yards for a TD, tying the game at 13. Buffalo's offense was shut down for the remainder of the contest, while game MVP RB Emmitt Smith ran for two TDs, a 15-yarder in the third quarter and a 1-yard plunge in the fourth, to put the game away. Murray added a late FG to close out the scoring, 30-13, and earn the Cowboys their second-straight Super Bowl victory over Buffalo.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

Rich Stadium - (73,103)

The Bills improved to 9-0 at Rich Stadium in the postseason with their impressive 37-22 victory over their AFC East foe the Miami Dolphins in the first round of the AFC playoffs. The Bills jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a seven play, 58-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard TD run by RB Thurman Thomas, who ran his consecutive postseason TD streak to six games. Buffalo would never look back as they forced Miami into three downs and out before K Steve Christie added his first of three FGs to make the score 10-0. The Bills defense stepped up at the start of the second quarter when Miami attempted a fourth-and-seven play from the Buffalo 32-yard line and were stopped. The Bills took over on downs and needed only four plays to march down the field for the score on RB Darick Holmes' 21-yard run into the end zone. The score was set up by a vintage 32-yard burst by RB Thurman Thomas to the Dolphins 21-yard line. Thomas, who had his sixth career 100-yard rushing postseason game, would finish the day with 158 yards on 25 carries and the Bills' 341 rushing yards would be the second highest total in NFL postseason history. Buffalo crossed the goal line again on their next possession when QB Jim Kelly's perfect 37-yard touch pass fell into the arms of WR Steve Tasker in the end zone to make the score 24-0 at halftime. Tasker would finish the first half with 108 yards receiving, the first 100-yard receiving game of his career. The scoring drive was set up by LB Marlo Perry's first career interception at the Bills' 38. Buffalo added three more points to their lead late in the third quarter when Christie added a 23-yard FG to push the lead to 27-0. Miami finally got on the board on their first possession of the fourth quarter when QB Dan Marino hit WR OJ McDuffie on a five-yard TD pass. The Bills punched in their final TD of the afternoon on RB Tim Tindale's career-long 44-yard burst off the left side for the score. The Dolphins rebounded with another score before Christie added a 44-yard FG, the team's final points of the day. The Dolphins added one final TD late in the game to provide for the final margin of victory, 37-22.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Three Rivers Stadium - (59,072)

The Bills' Super Bowl dream came to a close on the frozen surface of Three Rivers Stadium with a 40-21 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the second round of the AFC playoffs. The Bills, playing without DE Bruce Smith who remained in Buffalo with the flu, quickly found themselves trailing 20-0 with under five minutes to play in the first half. Instead of packing it in, the Bills persevered and kept the game close by adding a one-yard RB Thurman Thomas TD plunge with under a minute remaining in the first half to close the gap to 20-7. For Thomas it was his seventh consecutive postseason game with a TD, second longest streak in NFL history. The Steelers quickly regrouped to add a FG which made the score 23-7 at halftime. Pittsburgh added another three-pointer at the start of the third quarter before the Bills offense would get jump-started by a 40-yard run on a reverse by WR Steve Tasker. Two plays later backup QB Alex Van Pelt, in for a shaken QB Jim Kelly, hit TE Tony Cline on a two-yard TD pass to close the gap to 26-14. It was Cline's first-career touchdown. On their first possession of the final stanza the Bills drove 36 yards in six plays which was capped off by a nine yard pass from Kelly, who returned in the middle of the drive, to Thomas to make the score 26-21. For Thomas, it was his 18th postseason TD, making him the NFL's career postseason TD leader at the time. Pittsburgh took their ensuing possession and held onto the ball for 5:07 in driving 76 yards for the game-clinching TD to make the score 33-21. The Steelers added one more score with under two minutes to play to provide the final margin, 40-21.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

December 28, 1996

Rich Stadium - (70,213)

Buffalo dropped its first playoff game ever at Rich Stadium with a 30-27 defeat to the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Bills got off to a quick start when Jim Jeffcoat nearly sacked Mark Brunell for a safety, resulting in an intentional grounding penalty and subsequent punt from the back of the endzone. With Thurman Thomas getting the call on five consecutive plays, the Bills capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with Jim Kelly's seven-yard pass to a wide-open Thomas in the right flat. The TD was Thomas' 19th in the playoffs, establishing a new NFL postseason record. Midway through the first quarter Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons intercepted a Kelly shovel pass and raced 20 yards to even the score at 7-7. The Bills reclaimed the lead on their next possession when they marched 68 yards in 10 plays, the score coming when Thomas went over the right side from two yards out. Thomas' second score of the game made him the NFL's leading scorer in postseason history with 120 points (a record Emmitt Smith tied later in the afternoon), eclipsing the old mark of 115 points held by George Blanda. Jacksonville closed the first quarter's scoring at 14-10 when Mike Hollis connected from 27 yards out. Neither team scored again until Natrone Means rumbled 30 yards for his lone score of the game with under 4:00 to play in the half. Buffalo answered once again to tie the score at 17 when Steve Christie kicked a 33-yarder at the two minute mark. Christie opened the third quarter scoring on the Bills' initial drive with his second FG of the day, this one from 47 yards out. After the Jaguars knotted the score at 20 apiece on Hollis' 24-yard FG, Jeff Burris intercepted a pass that was tipped by David White and went 38 yards for Buffalo's final points of the game. Jacksonville evened the game on a Brunell-to-Jimmy Smith two-yard scoring pass and regained possession when they recovered a fumble at their own 42 yard line. Hollis' 45-yard FG bounced off the right upright before going through, giving Jacksonville a 30-27 lead with just over 3:00 remaining. Todd Collins replaced a shaken up Jim Kelly, but was unable to muster a comeback for the Bills.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium - (72,698)

The Dolphins earned the right to host the first-round playoff game thanks to a 6-point edge in net points in divisional games, the NFL's 5th tie-breaker. As it turned out, the game itself was just as tight and was not decided until the Bills turned it over after advancing to the Miami 5-yard line with 9 seconds to play. The contest not only ended in thrilling fashion but also began that way. On the game's first play, Doug Flutie hooked up with Eric Moulds on a 65-yard pass but Moulds fumbled at the end of the play, giving it to the Dolphins at their 29. From there, Miami advanced to Buffalo's 14 before Olindo Mare's 31-yard FG gave the Dolphins the early lead. They extended it to 6-0 on their next series with another Mare FG. The Bills came back quickly as a 37-yard Flutie-to-Moulds pass set up a 1-yard Thurman Thomas TD run to put Buffalo up 7-6. Just before halftime, Buffalo reached the Miami 6 but a Flutie INT halted that drive. Midway through the 3rd, Miami went back on top on a 3-yard Karim Abdul-Jabbar TD run and successful 2-point try. The Bills answered on their next drive and tied the score at 14 on a 32-yard scoring pass from Flutie to Moulds. After leading the AFC in receiving yards during the regular season, Moulds further established himself as one of the NFL's premier receivers and would finish the afternoon with an NFL playoff record 240 yards on 9 catches. Miami's next two drives resulted in scores - a 23-yard Mare FG and an 11-yard TD pass from Dan Marino to Lamar Thomas - and the Bills found themselves trailing by 10 with just 3:42 remaining. Buffalo advanced to the Miami 10 by the 2:00 warning when Andre Reed seemingly scored on a pass from Flutie. Officials however ruled Reed down at the 1 and then ejected him for protesting the call. Thanks to the penalty, the Bills were forced to settle for a 33-yard Steve Christie FG and hope for an onside kick recovery. Hope was alive when Kurt Schulz recovered the kick, giving the Bills the ball back at their own 31 with 1:30 left. They moved to the Miami 5 with :17 left but the drive ended when Trace Armstrong sacked Flutie, forcing the Bills 4th lost fumble of the day and Miami recovered at the 3.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

January 8, 2000

Adelphia Coliseum - (66,782)

The 11-5 Bills traveled to Nashville for an AFC Wild Card match-up with the 13-3 Titans that fittingly had all the elements of a country western ballad - adversity, exhilaration, frustrating run-ins with lawmen, and in the end, heartbreak. Steve Christie's 41-yard FG with :16 left appeared to give Buffalo the upset victory but on the ensuing kickoff, Frank Wycheck fired a suspicious looking cross-field lateral to Kevin Dyson that he returned 75 yards for the game-winning TD. The legality of the TD was confirmed following a video replay review by referee Phil Luckett. The improbable and bizarre ending ensured the game's place as one of the most memorable in NFL history.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Titans got on the board first when DE Jevon Kearse forced a Rob Johnson fumble out of the back of the end zone, resulting in a safety. Following the free kick, the Titans capped a 5-play, 28-yard drive with a 1-yard Steve McNair TD run. Momentum appeared to shift Buffalo's way later in the quarter when Phil Hansen forced an Eddie George fumble and Kurt Schultz recovered at the Buffalo 42. Three plays later on 3rd-and-10, Johnson connected with Peerless Price on a 27-yard completion to the Titans 31 with 1:53 to play but field judge Al Jury ruled that Price bobbled the ball though TV replays indicated otherwise. Following the Buffalo punt, Tennessee faced a 3rd-and-10 when a McNair run was stopped a yard short of the first down. The Titans were lined up to punt it back to the Bills with :38 left when the replay booth intervened. After a delay of 5:20, Luckett changed the spot of the ball to give the Titans a first down. They then advanced to the Buffalo 27 before Al DelGreco missed a 45-yard FG as the half expired. However, officials called a rare defensive holding penalty on the Bills and the ensuing 40-yarder on the half's final play gave Tennessee a 12-0 lead at intermission.

Buffalo opened the 2nd half with a 44-yard Antowain Smith run on the first play from scrimmage and three plays later, Smith scored on a 4-yard run to pull the Bills to within 12-7. That score remained until early in the 4th when Smith capped a 9-play, 65-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run and the Bills led 13-12 after an unsuccessful 2-point try. Tennessee then re-claimed the lead with 1:48 to play on DelGreco's 26-yard FG. Down 15-13, the Bills took over at their own 39 with 1:41 to play, no timeouts, and playing with a patch-work offensive line due to injuries. Johnson then led the team on a game-winning march to the Tennessee 23, thanks to a 14-yard pass to Price, a 12-yard run by Jonathan Linton and a 9-yard pass to Price. On the play before the final completion to Price, Johnson lost his shoe and was unable to replace it because the clock was ticking down but still executed the crucial play shoeless. Had Christie's field goal held up as the game-winner, the Johnson-led drive would go down as one of the most impressive in Bills lore. It was soon overshadowed, however, by the Titan return.

REGULAR SEASON COMEBACKS FROM DEFICITS GREATER THAN 20

September 21, 1997, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 37, Indianapolis 35

The Bills mounted the second-largest comeback in NFL regular season history when they overturned a 26-0 deficit. Rookie RB Antowain Smith capped off Buffalo's scoring frenzy when he crashed through the line and scampered 54 yards. He had scored the go-ahead TD (30-29) on a one-yard plunge on the previous series.

October 25, 1987, Joe Robbie Stadium

BUFFALO 34, Miami 31

The Bills fell behind 21-0 but battled back in the second half to set the stage for kicker Scott Norwood's 27-yard field goal in overtime

THE HOUSTON COMEBACK IN THE PLAYOFFS

(also on page 246)

January 3, 1993, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 41, Houston 38 (OT)

QB Frank Reich started for an injured Jim Kelly and brought Buffalo back from a 32-point 3rd quarter deficit in the AFC Wild Card Playoff to record the greatest comeback in NFL history. Four of the Bills' 5 TDs came on Reich passes (3 to WR Andre Reed) and K Stevie Christie kicked the 32-yard winning FG in OT.

EVERY DAY IS GAME DAY ON BUFFALOBILLS.COM

Buffalobills.com geared up for an exciting year of Bills football by launching a brand new look prior to the 2004 NFL Draft. The award winning website offers fans the most intense Bills coverage on the web.

Fans can read exclusive stories about Buffalo Bills players and coaches as well as tune in to live press conferences, live audio coverage of the games and up to the minute stats. The site also offers fans the chance to win Bills tickets, autographed merchandise, and other cool prizes including trips to major NFL events and Bills away games.

An increased multimedia section this season is filled with clips from the Bills Television Network, behind the scenes at Bills practices, and the all-new Bills Online TV.

Buffalobills.com is also your main source for Bills gear and tickets 24 hours a day.

Wilson, Jr. Field House. 10/8 The completed Field House opens with the unveiling of the Buffalo Bills Experience, the first fan interactive area displayed by any single team in the NFL. 12/17 Bills defeat Miami, 23-20, to win their sixth AFC East title in the past eight seasons. 12/30 Bills defeat Dolphins, 37-22, at home in Divisional playoff game in repeat of scenario from the 1990 season.
- 1996 — 12/22 Bills defeat Kansas City, 20-9, to advance to the postseason for the eighth time in the past nine seasons. 12/30 Center Kent Hull retires after 11 seasons in Buffalo.
- 1997 — 1/31 Quarterback Jim Kelly announces his retirement after 11 seasons with the Bills...7/31 Bills, the state of New York and Erie County agree on a new stadium lease proposal to keep the Bills in Buffalo for an additional six years, provided that $11 million in generated revenue from the sale of 76 new suites and 6,878 new club seats is sold by December 1998...2/31 Marv Levy, winningest head coach in Bills history, announces his retirement.

BILLS CHRONOLOGY

- 1998 — 1/5 Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips is named the 11th head coach in Bills history...1/20 Bills sign QB Doug Flutie, former Heisman Trophy winner and CFL Most Outstanding Player six seasons ...2/13 Bills acquire QB Rob Johnson from Jacksonville for the 1st and 4th round selections in the 1998 Draft...12/1 Team announces that it has met its $11 million sales goal for suite and seat sales...12/18 Bills and state officially sign the stadium lease agreement that will keep the Bills in Western New York for 15 the next years and also announce the venue in Orchard Park has been re-named Ralph Wilson Stadium.
- 1999 — 1/2 Buffalo loses a heartbreaker at Miami in an AFC Wild Card tilt as Doug Flutie is sacked deep in Dolphins territory in the game's final minute, preserving the 24-17 Miami win...9/19 Bills play first regular season game at renovated Ralph Wilson Stadium and mark the event by defeating the Jets, 17-3...11/28 Bills defeat New England to record their 100th win in the 1990s, making them just the 6th NFL franchise ever to do so. The win was part of a successful regular season that saw Buffalo go 11-5 and finish second in the AFC East...Buffalo finished the decade with an AFC best record of 103-57...the Bills defense sets several team records and finishes as the #1 unit in the NFL despite not having any Pro Bowlers...after an impressive performance in the season finale vs. Indy, Rob Johnson got the starting nod at QB over Doug Flutie in the AFC Wild Card game at Tennessee. The bold move nearly paid off as Johnson led the Bills to the game-winning field goal in the game's final half-minute but the lead was erased when the Titans turned in a memorable and controversial trick play on the ensuing kickoff return to doom the Bills.
- 2000 — The Bills say goodbye to three of the greatest players in team history during the offseason when they release Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas in salary-cap related moves...when the season rolls around, they get a chance to avenge their 1999 season-ending playoff loss to the Titans when they open the 2000 season with a home Sunday night game against Tennessee; Buffalo wins that game and beats Green Bay the next week before a three-game slide drops the Bills to 2-3...the Bills win four straight games and improve to 7-4 in late November but at Tampa they lose not only the game but also three key defensive starters...the Bills go on to lose four of the last five games to finish 8-8 and in fourth place in the AFC East...four Bills earn Pro Bowl selections - G Ruben Brown, LB Sam Cowart, WR Eric Moulds and NT Ted Washington...the week before the season finale, GM John Butler is relieved of his duties and head coach Wade Phillips is let go following the season.
- 2001 — 1/10 Tom Donahoe is hired as President and General Manager...1/27 Marv Levy is selected to the Pro football Hall of Fame...2/1 Gregg Williams is hired as the 12th head coach in franchise history...2/27 Thurman Thomas announces his retirement...Bills completely revamp roster due in part to salary cap constraints and open season with 22 new players...Pro Bowl LB Sam Cowart is lost for the season with an achilles injury suffered in first quarter of opener; QB Rob Johnson separates shoulder in game #8 and Alex Van Pelt takes over at QB the rest of the season...young squad struggles to 3-13 season...guard Ruben Brown is selected to his sixth straight Pro Bowl and fullback Larry Centers is picked for his third (first with Bills)...WR Andre Reed returns to announce his retirement on 9/8 and DE Phil Hansen also retires the day after the season finale.
- 2002 — Months before the 2002 regular season began, the Bills made many significant moves that would alter the course of the franchise. Two took place on draft weekend, first on 4/20 when the team selected Texas OT Mike Williams with the 4th overall pick, Buffalo's highest since taking Bruce Smith #1 overall in 1985. The next day's move (4/21) was even bigger as Buffalo acquired all-pro QB Drew Bledsoe from the Patriots in exchange for the Bills first-round in 2003. The team's makeover took a more aesthetic turn on 6/8 when the Bills unveiled new uniforms that marked the first significant modification since 1986 and saw the addition of dark blue and nickel to the team's enhanced red, white & blue scheme. When the season arrived, the Bills quickly proved to be one of the NFL's most electrifying and exciting teams of 2002 by going into overtime in three of the first four games. Buffalo's high-powered offense would go on to set numerous team records while several individuals did also. Bledsoe set 10 franchise marks including single-season records for passing yards, attempts, and completions while WR Eric Moulds became the first Bill to catch 100 passes in a campaign. RB Travis Henry rushed for the 4th-highest single-season total in team history (1,438) and ran for 13 TDs while LB London Fletcher set the franchise record for tackles in a season with 209. By finishing with five more wins than the year before Buffalo matched the best single-season turnaround in team history and was in the playoff hunt until game 15. Their 8-8 mark was just one game behind the division champion Jets who won the AFC East by virtue of tie-breakers over the Dolphins and Patriots (all 9-7).
- 2003 — The Bills were active in the 2003 offseason, signing linebackers Jeff Posey and Takeo Spikes, and also shocking much of the NFL by drafting RB Willis McGahee from Miami with the 23rd pick in the draft that the Bills received from Atlanta in exchange for the Falcons signing of Peerless Price. Days before the beginning of the season, the Bills signed free agent safety Lawyer Milloy (9/4), who had been released by the Patriots six days before the first game. The Bills came out of the gates fast, defeating New England in the opening game 31-0 and handling Jacksonville in week two 38-17. After an offensive explosion the first two weeks, the Bills attack quelled and the team lost two out of the next three. An Eric Moulds groin injury in week five vs. Cincinnati would prove costly to the team's offense for the remainder of the season. After finishing the first half of the season with a 4-4 record, the team dropped its next three games despite impressive defensive efforts. The team dropped three of its last five games, including a heart-breaking two point defeat at Tennessee, and finished the year 6-10. The bright spot of the year was the team's defense which finished second in the NFL with Takeo Spikes reaping the rewards by earning his first ever selection to the Pro Bowl. Defensive end Aaron Schobel also had a career-year with 11.5 sacks and became only the fifth player in team history to record a ten-sack season. Guard Ruben Brown also earned a Pro Bowl selection. Following the season, head coach Gregg Williams' contract was not renewed.

BUFFALO BILLS BAUSCH & LOMB TRAINING CAMP

The Bills moved their training camp in 2000 to St. John Fisher College near Rochester, NY. St. John Fisher College quickly earned a national reputation for hosting one of the top training camps in the NFL. The Bills camp regularly attracts fans from across New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Canada. Fans from further destinations have made the Bills Training Camp a stop on their vacation agendas as well.

The team holds daily practices at St. John Fisher College and utilizes the school's state-of-the-art training facility and locker rooms. Fans may visit training camp on any day of the week to watch practice from the enhanced sideline vantage points and admission is free. As in years past, children and adults can enjoy interactive games, purchase game tickets as well as exclusive 2004 Bills gear in the vendor tent at the camp entrance. For the third consecutive year, the Bills will hold two evening practices that will be another of the free events for fans to attend. The practices will include a full team autograph session following the training session as well as an opportunity for fans to test their football skills in the Bills Experience.

For up-to-date accurate information, including practice times and schedules, directions, recaps, restaurant and hotel accommodations, please visit buffalobills.com or call the training camp hotline (800-441-5942).

MEDIA ATTENDING CAMP:

Accredited members of the media are encouraged to visit training camp. To receive credentials or to inquire about training camp media procedures, please contact the Bills media relations office in Orchard Park (716-648-1800) or during camp at St. John Fisher College (585-218-7500).

THE BUFFALO BILLS FIELDHOUSE

The Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse redefines the state of the art for indoor practice facilities. This is the only facility in the NFL that can accommodate full indoor special teams practice. Construction of the facility began in March of 1995 and was completed in September of the same year. The 95,000 square-foot construction is 12 stories high and is large enough to duplicate the stadium field, including a 9-inch pitch. The building features a 20-foot wide rubberized track which runs around the field and is 1/5 of a mile in distance. It also houses a Bills' Photo Gallery that is composed of four-foot by six-foot photos of former players who were selected for the Bills Silver Anniversary Team, Pro Bowl, or the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Distinguished Service Award.

The latest renovation to the Fieldhouse was the addition of a 2,000-square foot retail store at the front of the building, which opened in 2001.

When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the "Rockpile" was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility, expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.

Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed - putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.

Since the stadium's original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium's capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measures 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.

In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of-the-art sound system.
